TRAFFIC FLOWS OVER NEW INTERCHANGE

A whole series of new traffic routings went into effect yesterday as the new Black Point Cutoff interchange with Highway 101 was opened south of Novato. Homebound commuters found themselves trying to follow directions on unfamiliar signs—and some trying to get from South Novato Boulevard to Novato itself reportedly wound up on the Black Point Bridge, heading into Sonoma County. Photo-diagram, combined production of Independent-Journal photographer Bob Hax and artist Jack Lucey, shows how traffic is routed to eliminate the former backups at traffic lights at the intersection of Highways 37 and 101.

ANGRY FEUD?

Johnson-Kennedy Rift Is Reported

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House denied today that President Lyndon B. Johnson had stopped speaking to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy because of the vice presidential write-in campaign for Kennedy in New Hampshire.

Pierre Salinger, the presidential press secretary, declined at his news briefing to comment on published reports of a feud between the two men, saying only that "all I know about that is what I read in the papers."

But he did say in response to a question that Johnson and Kennedy met frequently to discuss government matters and "never stopped speaking that I know of."

Other sources had said they expected some move by the president to show his regard for Kennedy. These sources said Kennedy's knowledge of Democratic party machinery would be very valuable to Johnson in his certain bid for a full four-year White House term.

One newspaper (New York Herald Tribune) said Johnson was so angry over the New Hampshire build-up for Kennedy that he wouldn't talk to the attorney general. The story said the president was communicating with Kennedy through a third party.

The dispatch also said that Johnson two weeks ago personally ordered the dismissal of Paul Corbin from the staff of the Democraic National Committee. The story described Corbin as a "Bobby Kennedy man" and said Johnson believed Corbin "set the woods afire in New Hampshire:

Justice Department sources said it was true that Kennedy had not spoken directly with Johnson recently. But they said they didn't know of any special reason for this and indicated that it was not unusual.

The furor over their relations came on the heels of a statement yesterday by Kennedy that he would not remain in the cabinet after November but that he had not yet decided what he would do.

Asked about the statement later, an aide said the attorney general really meant he would not stay on beyond January.

ORLANDO CONTI
In race again

Orlando Conti Will Run For Supervisor

Orlando Conti, 52, who owns Conti Plumbing in San Rafael, served notice today he will enter the supervisorial contest against incumbent Byron W. Leydecker and challenger John F. McInnis.

Conti has run unsuccessfully for San Rafael City Council, San Rafael mayor, and for supervisor against the late Walter R. Castro.

He has served since 1958 on the San Rafael Planning Commission.

Conti took out nomination papers from the county clerk's office for circulation.

He could not be reached today for a statement of his campaign platform.

Invited Home To Campaign

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, undeclared candidate and serving in an ambassador's post half a world away, swept New Hampshire's leadoff presidential primary with a smashing write-in vote.

On the basis of today's complete returns from 302 precincts, Lodge scooped up 35 per cent of the vote—the margin that Sen. Barry Goldwater had said was needed to score a true victory in the balloting.

Lodge's victory last night was deemed certain to result in a reshuffling of the Republican presidential cards.

WON'T RESIGN

In far-off Saigon, where he is the U. S. ambassador to Vietnam, Lodge said he did not intend to resign his post despite his upset victory in the nation's first 1964 test of Republican sentiment.

"It is a great honor and a great compliment," he said.

The ambassador was told of his victory while at Hue, 400 miles north of here.

LOOKED GRAVE

A U. S. Army officer handed him a note with the primary results. He looked rather grave, folded the note and put it in his pocket.

Asked in Saigon if he was happy, he said, "I'm always happy."

Lodge not only rolled over Goldwater and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, both of whom campaigned hard for the support of New Hampshire voters, but Lodge men captured all 14 New Hampshire delegate seats at the Republican National Convention.

With the complete, unofficial returns in from the state, the scoreboard looked like this:

Lodge 33,521
Goldwater 21,775
Rockefeller 19,496
Richard M. Nixon 15,752
Sen. Margaret Chase Smith 2,812
Harold E. Stassen 1,285

Goldwater and Rockefeller — declared candidates who spent wintry weeks hunting votes in New Hampshire — challenged Lodge to come home and fight for the nomination.

The ambassador's answer:

Alcatraz Sought As Tourist Site

By WAT TAKASHITA

Two Marin County men are offering the peace pipe to the Sioux Indians, asking the tribe to hold off its claim to Alcatraz Island.

Ned J. Burman of Kentfield, a public relations man, and Bruce McKenzie of San Rafael, a construction consultant, want to use the vacated federal prison as a tourist attraction, with proceeds to help youth.

They represent the Alcatraz Foundation for Youth Inc., an organization to help set up recreation facilities for young people.

McKenzie was in Sacramento yesterday trying to drum up support from legislators and to win the backing of Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson, who is a member of the president's commission to decide what to do with the vacated federal prison.

"It was originally Burman's idea," said McKenzie.

"We're not arguing for the future of the island on a permanent basis," McKenzie said. "It will be for temporary use —just to raise money to build playgrounds and ball parks for youth."

His idea is to charge $1 for adults and 50 cents for children for a tour of Alcatraz.

After all expenses are paid, McKenzie estimates an annual profit of at least $300,000 to be turned over to youth projects.

"First we'll build a fence to keep visitors away from hazardous spots," said McKenzie. He envisages a series of exhibits to impress visitors with the grave consequences of crime, extol the virtues of law enforcement, and inspire youth to become responsible citizens. "We're certainly not going to glamorize men like Al Capone."

"The cells are not falling apart," McKenzie declared. "I've been through it. Any dangerous areas will be fenced off."

This week, a band of Sioux Indians invaded Alcatraz and staked claims on the island under an old law that says surplus federal land may be turned over to Indians not living on reservations.

McKenzie said his group staked claims on the island last December in a similar "invasion." He is urging the Indians to forego their claims, at least for a few years.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (UPI) — Turkey today told United Nations Secretary General U Thant it would intervene in Cyprus unless an international peace force is sent to the island.

San Rafael Is Assured Of City Hall Funds

San Rafael has been assured of $211,981 in federal funds toward its new city hall, and the amount may even be increased.

City Mgr. Dan E. Anderson disclosed today he had received telephoned assurance from the Office of Civil Defense in money has been allocated to the city. He said the civil defense office reported a formal announcement would come from Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City).

The federal funds have been allotted to install a disaster center in the new city hall on Fifth Avenue between E and C streets. Architects have gone back to work on the project, to convert the public safety portion of the building into a disaster headquarters, Anderson said.

The change will involve eliminating windows, increasing wall thickness and re-arranging doors in the semi-basement public safety headquarters. It is not expected to add anything like $211,981 to the cost of the $666,400 estimated cost of the building.

The Office of Civil Defense approval was for the entire amount requested by the city, Andersen reported.

Quentin Warden May Go To Adult Authority

FRED R. DICKSON
To Adult Authority?

San Quentin Warden Fred R. Dickson may be leaving his post for another job, the Independent-Journal learned today.

However, the report was not confirmed from any official source.

Recurring rumors indicate that Dickson will be named to the California Adult Authority, and that an official from Soledad State Prison will take over the top job at San Quentin.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown's press secretary in Sacramento said today, he "cannot deny or confirm" the reports. Officials at San Quentin also remained mum.

An official announcement is expected in a few days.

Dickson, 63, has been in penology work for 44 years. He worked at Napa State Hospital, in reformatories and training schools in Idaho and Nebraska, and became an associate warden at San Quentin in 1944 under Warden Clinton Duffy.

Two years later he went to the men's prison at Chino, where he became superintendent in 1955.

In 1957, Dickson was appointed warden of San Quentin after the death of Warden Harley O. Teets.

On the California Adult Authority, the terms of Cletus J. Fitzharris of San Rafael and Fred Finsley of Sacramento will expire this month. In his press conference on March 3, Governor Brown indicated the two would not be re-appointed.

SUNNYVALE (UPI)—A Sunnyvale elementary school was closed and two high schools in nearby communities reported sharply reduced attendance today due to an outbreak of measles and influenza.

St. Martin's Elementary School, a Roman Catholic parochial school, was closed yesterday and today. Officials were not yet sure whether it would reopen tomorrow.

St. Francis High School at neighboring Mountain View reported that 170 of its 800 students were absent. Homestead High School in Cupertino reported an absentee rate of 11 per cent.

Rioters Sack U.S. Embassy

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Rioting Cambodians sacked the American and British embassies in Phnom Penh today and the U.S. Information Service library.

Several thousand Cambodians rampaged through the buildings during the three hours of disorder.

The flag over the U.S. Embassy was hauled down and burned, and the mob ran up the Cambodian flag.

Several cars belonging to members of the British Embassy were burned, and several American Embassy cars were overturned.

The mob shouted such slogans as "U.S. go home," "Down with imperialists and the Free World," and "Perfidious Albion (England)."

Battered Bartender Sees Blue

A San Rafael bartender has filed a battery complaint against a customer who allegedly pushed him off a stool because he wouldn't serve him a drink.

James Walter Simpkins, a bartender at the Club Moderne, 804 Fourth Street, filed the complaint against Robert J. Palmer, address unknown.

Simpkins said Palmer entered the bar Monday night. Simpkins refused to serve him because he had orders not to do so.

Palmer got mad and knocked him off a bar stool, causing back and neck injuries, Simpkins alleged.

He described Palmer as being in his mid-30s and weighing more than 300 pounds.

San Rafael police said Palmer's home "is wherever he hangs his hat." He has lived in San Rafael and Benicia in Solano County, they said.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Queen's Third Son Saluted

LONDON (AP)—Britain broke out its flags and fired 41-gun salutes today to celebrate the birth of a son to Queen Elizabeth II.

Both the 37-year-old queen and the new prince—her fourth child and third son—were reported doing well.

The baby weighed 5 pounds, 7 ounces, making him the smallest of the queen's four children at birth.

The names to be given the prince were the subject of much public speculation. The favorite was James, in tribute to Scotish Stuart ancestors of the queen. Robert, Rupert and David also were mentioned.

19 Die; Thousands Flee Floods

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Surging flood waters swirled through portions of seven Midwestern and Eastern states today, forcing thousands of persons to evacuate their homes and leaving death and extensive damage in their murky wake.

At least 19 persons perished as torrential rainstorms, heavy snow and strong winds whipped through hundreds of cities and communities augmenting the flooding.

Portions of Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Missouri, Illinois and West Virginia lay under flood waters.

Hundreds of families in Missouri and Southern Illinois left their homes as rivers overflowed and sent water edging to doorsteps.

Venezuela President Inaugurated

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI — The government declared a national holiday today for the inauguration of President Raul Leoni, marking the first time in Venezuela's history that a freely elected president has completed his term.

Streets were cleared for half a mile around the national capitol for the ceremony. Soldiers and police with tommy guns stood guard against any Communist attempt to disrupt the inauguration.

Leoni, who was chosen president Dec. 1 in an election the Reds did their best to sabotage, succeeds Romulo Betencourt, who is completing the five-year term to which he was elected in 1958.

The new president has announced he will carry on the policies initiated by Betencourt.

Greek Cypriots Demonstrate

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI)—Thousands of shouting, jeering Greek Cypriot students staged an anti-American, anti-British rally in downtown Nicosia today, trapping the British high commissioner in his car.

The shouting replaced shooting as, for the first time in three days, no new serious fighting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots was reported.

The students trapped British High Commissioner Sir Arthur Clarke—on his way to see President Archbishop Makarios off to King Paul's funeral in Athens — and rocked his car back and forth. Clarke escaped injury.

Dulles Defends CIA Expenses

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Allen W. Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, yesterday expressed concern over charges that the CIA is a "freewheeling" organization that does not have to answer to anyone.

Dulles, currently on a speaking tour of California state colleges, told a news conference at California State College at Los Angeles before addressing a student convocation that the CIA must justify its expenditures to Congress "like every other agency."

"The only difference is that this sum is not made public," he said.

Brown Called 'Remiss' Over Water Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A charge of being "remiss to the people" has been leveled at Gov. Edmund G. Brown in a split with the legislature over a pending federal water law.

The governor opposes a bill before Congress to clear up some federal-state conflicts in the complex field of water rights.

He says there's no need for it, and is worried about its side effects.

But after heated debate yesterday, the Senate joined the Assembly in endorsing the measure, authored by U.S. Sens. Thomas H. Kuchel and Clair Engle.

State Sen. James A. Cobey (D-Merced) said the bill's main objective is to make the federal government proceed under state law when it acquires water rights in California.

He accused Brown's administration of being "remiss in their duty . . . in not supporting this bill or similar legislation to protect the waters of this state from the federal government."

U.S. Protests Plane Downing Over Germany

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States combined an apology with a protest in asking the Soviet Union to help speed the return of an American reconnaissance bomber and its three-man crew shot down yesterday over Communist East Germany.

The crewmen parachuted from the plane after the shooting, the Defense Department said, but their fate was not known here. The plane was described as unarmed and on a training flight.

The Pentagon identified one member of the crew as Capt. David I. Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Holland Sr. of Holland, Minn. The names of the two others were not disclosed.

The request for Soviet help was made urgently last night by Assistant Secretary of State William Tyler to Georgi M. Kornienko, minister counselor of the Soviet Embassy.

The State Department announced that Tyler "delivered a strong oral protest" to the Soviet diplomat against "the precipitous action" by Soviet military forces in shooting down the RB-66B.

Tyler "also expressed the U. S. government's regrets that the plane became lost and inadvertently crossed the demarcation line between the Federal Republic of West Germany and East Germany.

This was the second incident of this kind in six weeks and the wording of the U. S. protest after the Soviet destruction of a U. S. T-39 jet trainer on Jan. 28 was much harsher. All three men in the trainer were killed.

Ruby Defense Rests; Jury Expected To Get Case Soon

DALLAS (UPI)—Jack Ruby's defenders abruptly chopped off their case today without calling him to the stand and followed with a motion for acquittal. Judge Joe B. Brown rejected the request and said the jury should get the case this weekend.

Both sides prepared for rebuttal fireworks and chief defense attorney Melvin Belli said he was saving Dr. Walter Bromberg, a prominent New York psychiatrist for "ambush" testimony in one final attempt to blow the state's murder case out of court.

The 52-year-old slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald sat calmly chewing gum as Belli rose at 10:07 a.m. (EST) to announce: "The defense rest, your honor."

Dist. Atty Henry Wade, impassive, got up and walked out of the courtroom for the half-hour recess that followed the announcement.

Prosecution sought to open rebuttal by showing a film of the shooting of Oswald. The jury was removed. Wade and Belli stepped into the box and watched it.

The defense protested that the film was repetitious since similar films,—one by UPI Newsfilm and one by a local television station—have been shown at the trial. The prosecution then withdrew the film.

Belli disclosed privately that he decided last night to cut things short after considering "the tempo and rythym of the case."

Belli was relying on the testimony of two psychiatrists yesterday who said Ruby has brain damage and was insane when he shot the accused assassin.

Assistant defense attorney Joe H. Tonahill asked Brown for a directed verdict of acquittal on the ground Ruby did not know right from wrong when he pulled the trigger.

Tonahill argued that one of the psychiatrists, Dr. Martin Towler of the University of Texas Medical School, had been appointed by the court. Therefore, the court should accept his findings and acquit Ruby.

'Let me correct you, Mr. Tonahill," Brown said, "The court had nothing to do with appointing Dr. Towler.

"I disagree violently," said the 6-foot, 4-inch, 245-pound lawyer from Jasper, Tex.

But Brown would hear no more of it and called a brief recess.

He said that the case could go to the jury Friday or Saturday.

Should the jury remain out through Saturday, it still would be possible to return a verdict on Sunday, Brown said.

No More Witnesses Due In Baker Inquiry

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Special counsel L. P. McLendon said today as far as he is concerned, no more witnesses will be called in the Senate's politically sensitive investigation of Bobby Baker's affairs.

McLendon told reporters, "As far as I'm able to observe there is no information available that would not be repetitive."

McLendon said he had seen an affidavit in which insurance agent Don B. Reynolds claimed that then vice president Lyndon B. Johnson wanted to know last spring "the amount of rebate or kickback of commission" when his life insurance policy was switched from term to permanent. McLendon declined comment on the affidavit.

The document, given to the committee by Sen. John Williams (R-Del.), said that White House aide Walter Jenkins, in the spring of 1963, directed Reynolds to work out an arrangement with Baker.

"He then stated that whatever I worked out with Baker should be given to Mr. Baker in cash and Mr. Baker would bring it in," said Reynolds.

McLendon would say only that he had seen Reynolds sworn statement and discussed it briefly with rules committee chairman B. Everett Jordan (D-N. C.). Jordan made public the affidavit today.

At today's session of the rules committee, Miami financier Benjamin B. Sigelbaum refused to tell the senators anything about several business deals in which he was reported to have been involved with Baker.

Sigelbaum refused to even say whether he was a citizen of the United States.

Slayings Have Curbed Paroles

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Parole became more difficult for convicts with violent backgrounds after several policemen were killed in 1963, a state law officer reports.

Asked what effect the deaths had, Richard A. McGee, administrator of the Youth and Corrections Agency, replied yesterday:

"We're making more careful diagnosis of cases that have violence in them.

"The Adult Authority is more conservative in dealing with people with a violent background."

$50 Million Tax Cut For State Utilities

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The recent reduction of federal income tax should give customers of California's public utilities and transportation companies an estimated 50 million dollars a year, according to the State Public Utilities Commission.

The commission informed 1,300 companies yesterday they were expected to pass reductions to their customers. The regulated firms included utilities, bus lines, truckers, railroads, warehouses, air lines, pipe lines and others.

PUC president William M. Bennett of Kentville said it would be difficult to guess how much difference the passing on of the tax reductions would make to the bills of individual householders, but he added that the 50 million dollars would be a substantial shot in the arm to the California economy.

The tax reduction, which became effective last Feb. 26, was adopted by Congress partly with the intent that corporations would retain some of the funds and reinvest them.

"I do not plan to go to the United States. I do not intend to resign."

The most optimistic backers of the top declared candidates had not anticipated a sweep of the delegates for their man.

Goldwater, claiming victory in advance, said he expected to capture seven to 10 delegates.

It added up to a New Hampshire mandate to Lodge to challenge President Lyndon B. Johnson—his boss as ambassador — for the White House.

There were a scattered few write-in votes for Govs. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and George Romney of Michigan.

Despite the snowstorm, the Republican turnout totaled some 90,000 votes. Advance forecasts had placed it at 90,000 to 100,000.

New Hampshire Democrats staged a write-in drive of their own, in what Gov. John W. King called, "an expression and recommendation" that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy become the party's nominee for vice president.

Its leaders had some last-minute qualms, fearing a Kennedy write-in that topped that for Johnson would embarrass the president.

The outcome quieted those fears. The figures read this way:

Johnson 17,558
Kennedy 14,265

New Hampshire voters also approved their state's big gamble: A sweepstakes designed to raise money for education.

The local option vote on the sale of sweepstakes tickets — conducted all over New Hampshire but effective only in the 42 communities with state liquor stores or race tracks, produced a lopsided yes — about three and one-half to one.

Rockefeller scoffed at Lodge as "a favorite son from New England" and Goldwater called him an ineffectual campaigner.

But the Arizona senator confessed "I must have goofed somewhere" in the New Hampshire campaign.

The New York governor tempered his reaction with compliments to New Hampshire for "the victory of moderation."

Goldwater accused Lodge of "staying out of the country to avoid having to say anything."

Both Rockefeller and Goldwater said they will head for California this week to hunt votes in that state's June 2 primary.

Rockefeller and Goldwater—neither of whom had ever lost an election before — glumly accepted New Hampshire's verdict from their headquarters in New York and Washington.

Both candidates insisted they would keep fighting for the nomination.

Food Stolen From Freezer In Garage

Mrs. Ethel Moore of 1452 Buchanan Street, Novato, yesterday reported to Novato police that someone took approximately $50 worth of frozen food from the freezer in her garage. frozen turkeys, an assortment of frozen vegetables and fruit juices, and home-made pastry. The theft took place during the said.

County To Study Plan For Freeway

The Marin County planning and public works staffs were given a month for further study on the precise alignment of the proposed Novato freeway yesterday by the board of supervisors.

Planning Director B. D. Dobbs pleaded for the time, saying the departments have major questions about details of roads adjacent to the highway from the Atherton Avenue interchange north.

W. Preston Smith, assistant district engineer of the State Division of Highways, said he felt the details could be worked out after the county signed the agreement.

He said the City of Novato signed its agreement with the state in January and work work be slowed on the state level. He agreed to the one-month delay, however.

Dobbs, in asking for the extra time, said that after the agreement is signed, the state would have a veto power over changes.

Reducing Book Author Indicted

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal grand jury indicted Dr. Herman Taller today on charges that his best-selling book, "Calories Don't Count," was part of a fraudulent weight-reducing scheme perpetrated across the nation.

Taller, 52, and three other individuals and two corporations were charged with mail fraud conspiracy and violation of the Food, Drug and Cosmetics Act.

U. S. Atty. Joseph P. Hoey said the charges stemmed from the sale and promotion of safflower capsules mentioned in the book.

Ex-Salad Oil King Is Indicted Again

NEWARK, N. J. (UPI) —Bankrupt salad oil king Anthony (Tino) De Angelis and four associates were indicted by a federal grand jury today for conspiring in a 100 million-dollar fraud involving forged warehouse receipts on non-existent oils.

The indictment was handed up to U. S. District Court Judge Thomas F. Meany. It was the second indictment returned against De Angelis, president of the now-bankrupt Allied Crude Vegetable Oid Refining Corp., since the salad oil scandal broke last November.

Caucus Favors Bond Voting In June

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Assembly Republicans voted today in favor of placing all state bond issues on the June primary election ballot. The vote came in a closed-door caucus.

Assemblyman Don Mulford (R-Piedmont) caucus chairman, said the stand was taken because the state's present school construction bond money will be exhausted before the November general election.

Chamber To Quit Charging For Maps

A planned course in small business, free Marin County maps and a new name for this year's fall extravaganza were major topics at yesterday's meeting directors of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce.

Directors are encouraging interested citizens, whether they are chamber members or not, to sign up for the small business course, slated to begin March 18. It will feature three-hour sessions starting at 7:30 p.m. Mondays, and will last through May.

The maps earlier were sold. Directors agreed to give them away, on a "one-to-a-customer" basis, to anyone calling at the chamber office, 824 Fifth Avenue.

As for that extravaganza, it will be called the "San Rafael Autumn Festival." Chamber vice president Robert Ritter said the festival, planned for September, will feature entertainment at shopping centers and a downtown location.

Ritter said directors "took under submission" a plea by theater manager Albert Goodwin that they take a stand supporting a constitutional amendment that would outlaw home pay-TV.

Group To Weigh Annexations

The local agency formation commission will consider the first annexation proposals for cities to be brought before it at its meeting at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow at the civic center.

Members will also discuss complaints that commission procedures are causing delays on some construction projects in the county. One developer reported he was delayed seven weeks by the commission schedule.

Annexations to be considered include: .84 of an acre along Corte Madera Creek east of Highway 101 to Larkspur; 1.21 acres of ridge land at Redwood Camp to Mill Valley; 74.54 acres of Scottsdale Novato Sanitary District.

Trees At School To Honor Kennedy

Three Redwood trees will be dedicated to the late President John F. Kennedy at Sausalito's Richardson Bay School at 8:30 a.m. Friday by Sausalito Mayor Paul Micou.

The trees were purchased by the pupils and are being planted in a court near the principal's office. A plaque is to be placed in the ground near the trees, said student body president Valena Randolph.

10 Groups Due In College Hootenanny

Ten groups have been entered in a hootenanny to be held at noon tomorrow in Room 96 of Olney Hall, College of Marin.

They will compete for $100 in prize money put up by the Inter Club Council. Rallies and assemblies commissioner Roy Trumbull will present a program of professional folk singers.

Dillon Beach Water Rate Hike Looms

Rate increases for Dillon Beach water users loomed as a probability in a two-day hearing before a State Public Commission examiner Monday and yesterday, but it may be only a 40 per cent boost instead of the 60 per cent boost as requested.

Lawrence R. Vanoni, owner of Coast Springs Water Co., is seeking a profit this year of 7.4 per cent. This would mean an increase in the flat rate from $36 to $59 a year and in meter rates from 40 to 65 cents per 100 cubic feet for the first 5,000 cubic feet and from 30 to 50 cents per 100 cubic feet for anything above 5,000 cubic feet.

PUC Examiner Edmund F. Catey, presiding at the hearing, said Vanoni's request represented an increase of about 60 per cent over current rates. PUC staff members, testifying Monday argued in favor of a 40 per cent increase which would allow Vanoni a 6.75 per cent profit.

The testimony was taken under submission at conclusion of the hearing yesterday. Catey said it would be about three months before a decision is made.

Vanoni based his request for profit on work done to improve distribution and quality of water under a PUC order in 1962.

Greenbrae Owners Will Publish Small Quarterly

Directors of the Greenbrae Property Owners Assn. last night decided to publish a small quarterly publication to keep Greenbrae residents informed of what is happening in the community.

Named editor of the publication, for which a name will be sought from residents, was Col. Robert Nourse, in charge of publicity for the association. Director Michael Daniel was named business manager.

Members of the outgoing board and the new board and their wives will have a dinner party in the Pandora's restaurant, San Anselmo.

United World Federalists Elect

John J. Wiley of Belvedere was elected last night as chairman of the board of Marin chapter of United World Federalists in a meeting at the home of Max Thelen Jr. of San Rafael.

Other new officers are Walter E. Olson of Fairfax, vice-chairman; Mrs. Joseph Gutstadt, of Ross, secretary; Dr. Joseph Gulstadt, treasurer; H. Dieter Schught of San Rafael, organizational liaision, and Mrs. Thelen, home meeting chairman.

Director also discussed plans to host the northern California Branch of the association, which will be held in Marin County in May. Exact place and date have not yet been determined, according to Mrs. Thelen.

Mill Valley Editor To Aid McCabe

The Mill Valley Record announced today that John G. Donhoff, editor, has been given a leave of absence to serve as campaign coordinator and press director for George McCabe, democratic candidate for congress from the first district. The leave is effective immediately.

Donhoff, 43, who lives at 390 Ferndale Avenue, has been with the Record for years. He will work out of campaign headquarters in Santa Rosa but will continue to reside in Mill Valley with his wife, Jill, and two sons.

No one has been chosen to replace Donhoff as yet, publisher Edward M. Mills said today.

Corned Beef For K. Of C. Fete

Corned beef and cabbage, plus Irish entertainment, will top Sunday's observance of St. Patrick's Day by San Rafael Council, Knights of Columbus, according to Grand Knight Robert L. Westerhold.

Celebration will begin with a 4:30 p.m. social hour at the K of C Hall. Members, wives and friends are invited, according to Westerhold.

$980,000 School Injury Suit Filed

A $980,000 suit against Tamalpais Union High School District has been filed in Marin Superior Court in the 1962 trampoline injury of Charles Locati, 17-year-old Mill Valley student.

The suit asks $30,000 in medical costs, and $950,000 in general compensation for alleged permanent disability.

The youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Locati of 5 Dawn Place, allegedly broke his neck, causing him to become paralyzed from the chest down, in a fall Oct. 5, 1962, during a Tamalpais High School physical education class.

According to plaintiff's attorney, Harold F. Riede, the youth was attempting an exercise calling for a jump from a small trampoline to a gymnasium "horse" when he tripped and fell.

The suit alleges the district was negligent in that it failed to provide proper instruction to Charles in use of the equipment, and further that no "safety man" was present to prevent such a fall.

Riede said Charles missed nearly a year's schooling as result of the injury, and is now confined to a wheelchair, except when driving a specially-equipped car to and from school.

Bomb Hoax At Novato High School

An expelled student sent Novato police on a fruitless search for a bomb in Novato High School today.

The girl was expelled from school yesterday and sent to the Marin County Juvenile Hall. There, reported Supt. David Fogel, she told an attendant last night that a bomb was to be planted in the high school today.

Authorities at first paid little attention, since the girl had made a bomb hoax telephone call to another high school last year. Today, however, she added details, told who was to plant the bomb, and said it would be hidden in the girls' rest room and timed to explode at noon today.

Juvenile hall authorities called Novato police. Officer Joseph Fitzgerald questioned the alleged bomb planter and made a thorough search of all rest rooms at the high school. No bomb.

Wornum Blasts Citizens' 'Smear'

Michael Wornum, Mill Valley city councilman seeking re-election on April 14, charged the citizens committee for good government today with using "smear tactics."

Wornum said the committee alleges it is not endorsing him because of "possible grand jury action against the present city council for its alleged secret meetings last year."

"I suspect," he said, "the real reason is my consistent stand against the exploitation of Mill Valley."

Driver Treated After Collision

Charles Raymond Pahrman, 44, of San Francisco was treated for multiple cuts at Marin General Hospital yesterday after his car hit the rear of another auto on highway 101 at the Corte Madera overpass at 11 a.m.

A car driven by Al Wallace, 59, of 32 Yale Avenue, Larkspur, changed lanes in the northbound lane of highway 101 and was hit in the rear by Pahrman's car, according to the California Highway Patrol. Wallace was cited for an unsafe lane change.

Injured In Fall

Russell S. Reagan, 50, of Sausalito, was reported in "fair condition" today at Marin General Hospital. Reagan fell on stairs at his home at 1 Edwards Avenue Monday, and was taken to the hospital by Marin Ambulance.

Redwood Students Interview 93 World Leaders By Mail

By LYNN DIAMOND
Redwood High School student

A Redwood High School beginning journalism class wrote letters to 93 famous men and women — ranging from John Glenn to Princess Grace of Monaco to President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt.

Most of their answers were personal letters, but many included books, pamphlets, article reprints and autographed photographs. A letter from Israel's David Ben-Gurion was hand-written; another from attorney Vincent Hallinan was typed on binder paper; and Charlie Brown and Snoopy, Charles Schultz's famous cartoon characters, grinned up from the bottom of their creator's stationery.

When she made the assignment, teacher Carol Neumeier told her journalism students, "Let's use the world as our textbook" in learning the technique of interviewing. Each student was instructed to interview three people by mail: a local, a national and an international figure.

Explaining his segregationist viewpoint to Delanie Secor, Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama wrote: "June 23 of this year (1963) in Savannah, Ga., a ruling was handed down by a federal judge that found, as a fact, that at the sixth-grade level Negro students are two years behind white students, and at the 12th-grade level the gap has widened to a three-year differential. This is one of the reasons we maintain segregation in Alabama."

Some of the letters took on particular importance in light of events that occurred after they were mailed.

Rick Davidson received a letter from Gen. Theodore F. Bogart, commanding officer of Fort Amador, Panama Canal Zone, dated Nov. 26, which read: "I have sought and found a warm response to the development of mutual understanding and mutual respect between the people of Panama and the members of the U. S. Army Forces Southern Command."

Now a candidate in the Ohio senatorial race, astronaut John Glenn Jr. wrote Paula Malvino in October: "I also want to consider (the offers of employment) where I can contribute the most. As I have said before, I feel that my place is with the space program as long as I am required as an active astronaut or until some higher authority feels I can best serve in another area."

Mrs. Elizabeth Gatov, former treasurer of the United States, wrote Claire Badararoco: "Politics gives its richest rewards to those who take part in it as a vocation. People who are temperamental, self-centered, or who go back on their commitment may move fast for a time, but after a while they disappear from the scene."

According to Mrs. Gatov, a woman has the same opportunity to advance in politics as a man. "The Democratic party has a good many active women and they are not segregated in any way," she wrote.

Poppy Eager asked Princess Grace whether Monaco would consider taking part in a high school exchange. Back came the princess' response: "Monaco is an extremely cosmopolitan community, with 85 per cent of its population composed of foreigners of all nationalities. Thus, in the Monegasque schools, there already exists an international atmosphere, and a formal student exchange is not really necessary."

Famed semanticist S. I. Hayakawa of Mill Valley wrote Bonnie Banducci: "I think that the English language should be an auxiliary second language for the peoples of the world. However, I believe that English spelling should be rationalized so that step can be taken. Our spelling system is an absolute disgrace."

In writing to Larry Diamond, Jessica Mitford, author of "The American Way of Death," said, "The funeral seems to me to epitomize the worst aspects of American life—emphasis on material values, general phoniness far more than, for instance, Hollywood or other generally recognized symbols of excess."

She went on to say she had received hundreds of letters from people who were critical of the funeral industry. "I haven't received a letter from a 'satisfied customer' yet," she added.

"The U. S. and France may disagree about politics, but never about culture, which must bring us all consolations until we agree about all matters as well," wrote M. Brandin on behalf of Andre Malraux, French minister of culture, to Josette Sommers.

After participating in the interviewing experiment, Janet Rigsbee commented: "Sometimes they answered because they were really interested, and sometimes only to promote a friendly image. I like to think they answered us because they were interested in the questions we were asking."

Added classmate Muffin Steel: "All these people in the news are so far up in the world, they awe you. I think receiving personal letters from them brought us closer to them. It made us realize that they were real people."

No League Meeting

The Kentfield Civic League did not meet Monday night because of a lack of quorum, according to president Allen G. Wright. Next meeting of the league will be on April 13.

Christmas Tree Hill Assn. Elects

Twelve persons were elected to the board of directors of the Christmas Tree Hill Dwellers Assn. Monday night at the Corte Madera organization's annual meeting.

The directors are: Barbara Berends, Jack Caldwell, George Daum, John Fredricks, Juliette Kraeger, Ralph Giovanniello, Peter Lenz, Eve Rasmussen, Catherine Robson, Jerry Rubin, Bruce Taylor and Wilbur Williams.

Members heard an explanation from Mrs. Richard Berryman of what the 87 acres of tidelands off Corte Madera would be used for if purchased by the Marin Conservation League. Mayor Edward W. Colthurst talked about the April 14 bond issue for public safety buildings.

All dressed in winter sports attire, Spanky the chimp practices curley-cues yesterday in Chicago and winds up making some of those horizontal whirls—just like the human skaters do to a big fanfare. SEASHORE FUNDS AGAIN REQUESTED

Delays Increasing Cost, Congress Informed; Aide in Marin Asks Money For Limantour

Premature tourist influx to Point Reyes National Seashore had its repercussions yesterday both in Washington, D.C., and Marin.

Congress was again warned that further delays in purchase of land for the seashore could add substantially to its cost, United Press International reported from Washington.

National Park Service Director George B. Hartzog Jr., in testimony before the House appropriations committee made public yesterday, said the cost of land for the seashore is increasing 10 to 15 per cent per year.

He said the 14 million dollars authorized for land purchase would meet only about half the cost. He urged six million more be authorized for buying land, and proposed increased appropriations for operation and shuffling of agency funds to meet additional new costs.

The federal government as yet does not own all the land needed for access roads.

At the Marin County Civic Center, the board of supervisors was told by Fred W. Binnewies, seashore superintendent, that the next appropriation (when and if) will be used to purchase homes in the Limantour area. He said all but one of the 14 houses there would be razed.

Binnewies said it is planned to spend $247,500 for work on the Limantour Spit late next summer. Work will start also on Drake's Beach as soon as the county turns it over to the federal government, he said.

County Parks Director Kelvin J. Nelson has proposed that some of the federal money be paid the county for Drake's Beach. Supervisor George H. Ludy, who represents the area, questioned this, commenting the beach had cost the county nothing and now is expensive to maintain.

Nelson said money from the federal government would be used to develop trails outside the seashore by which to reach the area. He said residents who purchased the beach and gave it to the county approved this idea, as did the federal government.

Nelson suggested that McClure's Beach, at the other end of the peninsula, might be turned over to the National Park Service free, since it was a gift to the county by one man.

Binnewies said more personnel will be employed soon to assist tourists, particularly on weekends.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom urged that the federal government quickly sign a contract with the county for fire protection. Supervisors told him to take county trucks onto the seashore anyhow if a fire starts, with Binnewies promising the U.S.A. will assume any resultant liability.

Terra Linda Addition Is Accepted

By 4-to-1 vote last night, the San Rafael Board of Education accepted completion of a 10-classroom addition at Terra Linda High School that cost $253,000

Board Member Bella H. Aaron, one of those who inspected the work, complained there were large cracks in the concrete floors of three rooms. She voted against acceptance.

Architect Carl F. Gromme told the board the cracks are normal and unavoidable in such large masses of concrete. He said there is no way to prevent concrete from cracking. There is no structural weakness involved, he insisted.

The addition is for art and homemaking classrooms. Cabinet work and other furnishings have not yet been completed.

Jacob Perkins invented the first ice making machine in 1834.

Property Group Says Souza Is A Candidate

Leo Souza was announced today as a candidate for the prospective Tiburon city council by Joseph C. Marshall, president of the board of directors of Seafirth Property Owners Assn. Souza is secretary of the association.

The Seafirth board has passed a resolution "encouraging and offering to support Souza for city council," said Marshall.

Another resolution was passed saying the Seafirth property owners were polled last fall and overwhelmingly supported incorporation. It declears for a single-family, low-density residence community, support of the Tiburon master plan, and proper use of the tidelands.

Souza has lived for seven years at 20 Seafirth Road with his wife, Maxine, and two sons, Timberly, 7, and Eric, 6.

He is a member of the Reed School District board, chairman of the budget sub-committee of the Tiburon incorporation committee, and chairman of the transportation committee of the Tiburon Peninsula coordinating council.

Four other Tiburon residents have anounced their intentions to file for the five Tiburon council positions. They are Charles T. Cohen, Dean Jennings, Mrs. Edward J. Parnell, and Marc Saunders.

Election date is June 2, the same date as the incorporation election.

Filing for council positions will be March 19 through noon of April 7 at the county clerk's office in the courthouse.

The North American continent was overpopulated when Christopher Columbus discovered it because the Indians had only the skills to provide a scanty living for their small population.

Terra Linda Directors Hit Apartments

Directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District voted to join in opposition to a proposed 1,186-unit apartment development by the Draper Companies on the hill behind Northgate Shopping Center.

The vote was 4-0, with director Richard Less, who owns a drugstore in the shopping center, abstaining.

Commissioner Robert H. Brownne warned residents to be careful about signing petitions circulating in the Terra Linda area on the subject. He claimed petitions most recently circulated required close reading. He said many persons opposed to the apartments had signed, only to realize later they had endorsed the project.

The stand against the apartments was based on the expected increase in traffic and pressure on the school system, according to the letter to be sent to the city of San Rafael. Robert F. Loberg, president of the Terra Linda Valley Homeowners Assn., had requested the vote.

Irwin Taranto, member of the San Rafael Park and Recreation Commission and resident of the Terra Linda annexation to the city, then arose to say that opposition to the plan alone was unwise and alternatives should be offered. He said constructive suggestions are needed for the area and that the district should cooperate more with the city.

Brownne and director Webb Beckstead were appointed to a committee to investigate formation of a homeowners' association to include all the Terra Linda area, both in and out of the city.

The directors voted to ask the Local Agency Formation Commission to hold up action on annexation of the Knocknaboul area to the Terra Linda recreation and parks district until annexation to the community services district can be processed simultaneously.

A candidates' night for supervisorial candidates of the first district was set for May 21 at Bernard Hoffman School.

The board was told that the state has agreed to offer a 15-hour course in firemanship for members of the fire department. The class was set for five three hour sessions on Thursdays.

Mill Valley Planners Back New Library Plans

Mill Valley Planning Commission last night recommended city council approval of plans for the proposed new library, saying it is an "excellent solution," chairman Robert C. Mountjoy reported today.

Commissioners agreed, however with the parks and recreation commission that the 12 parking spaces proposed on the north side of the library be reduced to about one-half that number. The commission also suggested that the parking area be posted for service and staff use only.

The commission recommended zoning Cascade and Old Mill Parks as 'open area," but recommendation on zoning of the small craft harbor was withheld pending completion of the East Mill Valley master plan. The areas are now unzoned.

Variances sought by John Ribeiro to permit construction of a duplex at 5 Olive Street and for Robert Greene to construct five offices at 20 Sunnyside Avenue were denied.

Neighbors in the vicinity of each protested the variances.

The commission adopted a set of by-laws, having previously had none.

Attorneys Want Order On NWP Tunnel Upheld

Attorneys representing San Rafael, Marin County and interested shippers filed a brief in U.S. District Court in San Francisco today urging that the Interstate Commerce Commission's order for re-opening of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad through Puerto Suello tunnel be upheld.

The brief was in answer to the railroad's suit in the district court asking that the ICC order be overthrown.

Attorney Myron Bull, associated with Attorney Boris H. Lakusta in representing San Rafael and others, said the answering brief claims the court's powers are limited in the case.

It can only consider whether the ICC's action was fair and based on evidence presented at hearings in 1962. It cannot judge the merits of the case, Bull said in describing the brief.

The railroad has until April 1 to reply to today's brief. Arguments will be heard in the district court on April 10.

The tunnel was destroyed in a fire set by two boys on July 20, 1961. The damage led the closing the Northwestern Pacific's main line south into San Rafael and Southern Marin.

Sonic Booms To Be Heard Along Coast

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Air Force will conduct a major exercise Friday that will have a "disconcerting" effect on the ears of West Coast residents.

"Some B-58 bombers will fly high altitude supersonic missions near several major California cities, creating disconcerting but harmless sonic booms," an Air Force announcement said yesterday.

"Several subsonic B-47 and B-52 bombers will fly at low altitudes near major U. S. cities in California, Nevada, Oregon and Utah."

The joint Air Defense-Strategic Air Command exercise will extend from Alaska to San Diego. It will last no longer than one hour in any given area and no suspension of normal civilian air traffic is expected.

The sonic boom, now familiar in many parts of the country, is created by thunder-like sound waves when a plane breaks through the sound barrier.

Tanforan Racetrack Is Purchased

REDWOOD CITY (UPI) — Tanforan racetrack has been sold to a southern California real estate developer for 6.15 million dollars.

A deed of sale was filed in the San Mateo County recorder's office and a short time later the buyer in Los Angeles, Sunset International Petroleum Corp., confirmed the 143-acre transaction.

The Sunset Company said it plans to raze all the horse racing facilities and build on the grounds a commercial and residential development consisting of apartments, stores and recreational facilities.

Sale of the 64-year-old track came as no big surprise. The track sought earlier this year to transfer its racing dates to other Bay Area tracks.

(Sunset International Petroleum Corp. is developer of San Marin, the 2,000-plus acre planned community in and abutting Novato on the former Freitas C Ranch. It also has other large developments elsewhere in California.)

Prisoner's Soft Hiding Place Found

San Quentin Prison guards found a 30-year-old inmate, Len Challburg, in a bin of cotton after searching nearly two hours for him late yesterday.

Robert Lohiano, associate warden for classification and treatment, said Challburg was missing at a 4:40 p.m. prisoner count. After a thorough search of the prison, officers J. J. Kentzel and C. Golonska found Challburg in the cotton textile mill, where he had climbed into a waste bin and had covered himself with cotton.

Challburg will be held in the prison's adjustment center until he appears at disciplinary committee hearing March 17.

He was committed Nov. 14, 1961, from Kern County, on a one-year to life term for escaping from Tehachapi Prison in October, 1961. Originally, he was sentenced to a six-month to 10-year term for a grand theft conviction in Nevada County.

Before yesterday's hideout, Challburg had been scheduled to appear next month before the California Adult Authority for a parole hearing. The disciplinary committee may recommend that this date be revoked, Loriano said.

New Baby Death Clues Lacking

No new development in efforts to identify the body of a newborn baby found near Novato, last Thursday was reported by Marin County sheriff's office today, despite an appeal to all service station operators in Marin for possible clues.

Sheriff's inspectors said an appeal to housewives who might have noticed an ex-pregnancy without a child has also thus far been unanswered.

The nude baby, found in a Highway 101 drainage ditch, was probably thrown from a car, deputies said.

Innocent Verdict In Meter Case

Michael Anthony Nolan, 25-year-old Daly City man charged with petty theft in recent San Rafael parking meter lootings, yesterday was acquitted by a Marin Municipal Court jury after about an hour's deliberation.

Nolan was arrested Jan. 27 by San Rafael police at Third and Irwin streets after being under surveillance for several blocks. A petty theft charge against a companion, Margaret garet Jane Pearson, 24, San Francisco, arrested with Nolan, was dismissed after her case failed to be tried within a 30-day limitation period, the district attorney's office said.

Narcotics Stolen From Doctor's Car

Break-in of a San Rafael doctor's car early today netted burglars a medical bag containing half-a-dozen hypodermic sryinges and a small quantity of morphine, Marin County sheriff's officers reported.

Dr. William A. Galeno, 50 Alta Vista Ways, just outside the city limits, told deputies the vehicle was parked at home when a left ventilation window was broken for entry. Overall loss was estimated at $300.

5 QUESTIONS FOR CANDIDATES LISTED

9 Running For Sausalito Council Face Quiz By Public At School On March 25

Sausalito's nine candidates for city council have been invited to answer five questions at the Sausalito Citizens Council candidates' meeting at 8 p.m., March 25, in Central School auditorium.

Questions range from acquisition of Shelter Cove lots and zoning to "Should the present city council-city manager form of government continue?"

Each candidate for the April 14 election will be asked to speak up to eight minutes to the questions, after which other questions may be asked from the floor.

Candidates' statements will not be considered as pledges, said Glenn T. Hall, citizens council president, but should indicate probable attitudes.

Candidates for the three upcoming council vacancies are Eleanor O'Hara Chapin, Carl W. Gabrielson, John J. Gallas, Shirley J. Kindred, James B. Leech, Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford), Martin Silverman, Serge Trubach, and Melvin S. Wax. A 10th candidate, Thomas Gene Siddle, was ruled off the ballot when it was found he had but four valid signatures on his nomination petition where five are required.

Refreshments will be served by the Sausalito Woman's Club.

The questions are:

1. Should the city's long standing policy of acquiring underwater lots, such as in Shelter Cove, be supported and continued? If you agree with this policy, would defeat of ballot measure "B" (Shelter Cove lots) change your view?

2. With respect to all undeveloped waterfront, should the uses now permitted by the new zoning ordinance be made more restrictive? If so, what would you change?

3. Should our present city council-city manager form of government continue? If not, how would you change it?

4. Should the present policy of hiring professional technical assistance be continued for such matters as completing unfinished details of the general plan, traffic studies, administering zoning and other ordinances?

5. What new civic buildings, if any, do you feel should be built? Should they be in a "civic center" or in different locations?

Crippled Children Open House Due

Open house at the office of the Marin Society for Crippled Children and Adults, 629 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, is scheduled from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday.

At the same time, judges will pick the best entries from a number of Easter eggs decorated with Easter Seals by Marin Camp Fire Girls and Bluebirds.

The contest will be judged by Dr. Christian Gronbeck Jr., 1964 seal campaign chairman, Mrs. Kitty Oppenheimer of KTIM and Mrs. Lawrence J. Kramer Jr. of San Rafael.

Teachers Ask Increases Of $201,091

The San Rafael Teachers Assn. last night proposed a new salary schedule that would increase payroll in the high school district by $111,021 a year and in the elementary school district by $90,070.

The San Rafael Board of Education, who heard the proposal for the 1964-65 fiscal year in a standing room only crowd of 60 persons, mostly teachers and administrators, promised to give the proposal careful study.

The proposal would mean an 8.1 per cent increase in the high school district payroll and a 7 per cent increase in the elementary district schedule over the estimated salary if the present schedule continued.

F. Ewing Bone, chairman of the salary committee of the San Rafael Teachers Assn., presented the plan for a schedule with a starting salary of $5,250 and a top of $10,690 a year.

Present schedule starts at $5,100 and goes to a top of $10,030, in 14 steps for annual increase in each group of five scales of professional advancement. Jump from step to step is $290 a year. The association's proposal calls for 13 steps with a jump from step to step of $340 a year.

Assisting Bone in the presentation were E. B. Gearhart, who suggested that adult teaching, home instruction and summer school be paid $6 per hour rather than the present $5 per hour; Allen Johnson, who urged the board to consider fringe benefits, and Farhad Moezzi, who explained professional advancement needed for salary increases at certain points in the proposed schedule.

Apartment Zone Near Hub School Is Denied

The San Anselmo City Council denied multiple family zoning for 1001 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at Calumet Avenue, opposite Isabel Cook School, last night after hearing protests from a delegation of neighboring property owners.

Residents said an apartment house would create a traffic hazard, would be a detriment to the neighborhood, and would be spot zoning.

The rezoning from single residential to multiple family was sought by Gordon Jones, who appealed to the council after the planning commission recommended denial.

Jones said he wanted re-zoning of four lots so he could sell his property. He charged the city's master plan was discriminatory in its zoning.

The council received a petition signed by five persons who said they had no objection to Jones' plan, but when it came to a show of hands from the audience, about 18 hands were raised in protest, none in support.

An apartment house across from Isabel Cook School would create a traffic safety problem, said Roger Erickson of 96 Park Drive. "It would be spot re-zoning."

Hans Peters of 48 Calumet Avenue said apartments in that area would make "another mess" like the 700-800 block of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. "Why should the rest suffer because one man wants to make money?" he demanded.

Peters charged that people in the area were not notified of the request for rezoning.

City Administrator Douglas Flautt said notices were sent to 40 property owners within a radius of 300 feet of the proposed rezoning. "Peters was out of the radius," he said.

The council voted 4-0 to uphold the planning commission denial. Councilman Cedric E. Clute abstained because of a conflict of interest.

Marin Catholic Grads Doing Well

Graduates of Marin Catholic High School are doing well at University of California, it appears.

The university has conferred an award of merit on the high school, according to Msgr. Edward Dullea, principal. It is based on cumulative records of students' grades during their first semester in college.

Meeting Due On Planners Merger

Members of the policy guidance group on multiple government unit study will meet at 8 a.m. tomorrow at the civic center to discuss proposed amalgamation of city and county planning staffs.

The group, which includes representatives of cities, county, and special districts, will also discuss a name for itself.

Maloney View On Rat Island Sought

The Marin County board of supervisors yesterday agreed to ask County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney for a legal opinion on the best way to keep Rat Island unmarred.

The federal government has offered the .08 of an acre island, near China Camp, to the county for about 20 cents, but representatives of the Draper Companies, which recently purchased all adjacent land, appeared to ask that the county let the developers buy the island.

Attorney Charles Clifford, representing Draper, said the firm wants merely to assure that the island will be undeveloped and remain as part of the scenery.

County Parks Director Kelvin J. Nelson answered that he felt the best way to insure the island would be untouched would be to have it in control of the county.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman said future boards of supervisors might change their minds about use of the island. He acknowledged that the use of the land must be written into an agreement with the federal government, but said these agreements can be altered.

The problem was given to Maloney after Mrs. William B. Newman, member of the park and recreation commission, commented that future owners of the land also could probably not be bound on the use of the island.

Bids were opened by the supervisors on three road jobs, and two contracts were awarded.

Ghilotti Brothers Construction Co. of San Rafael was lowest of six bidders for improvement of Lucas Valley Road at $67,496.78. O. C. Jones and Co. of Berkeley was lowest of seven bidders at $29,906 for reconstruction of the Lagunitas Road Bridge.

V. Maggiora and Son, Inc., of Sausalito was apparent low bidder among five on a drainage improvement project for Montecito Road, Trestle Glen Way and Auburn Street, at $27,407, but public works director Donald R. Frost asked a week to study the bids because the job was unusually complicated.

The Marin County Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Approved a formal application for state aid under the Short-Doyle mental health program.
2. Passed an ordinance allowing Friday holidays when more than two holidays in any one year fall on a Saturday.
3. Approved overtime pay for probation office workers at juvenile hall for holidays automatic.
4. Approved a contract for construction of a state fair exhibit for the counties building.
5. Continued consideration of a date for a joint meeting with the personnel commission until after scheduled hearings on appeals by two dismissed deputy sheriffs.
6. Agreed to purchase the property of Lt. Col. Harold F. Hamit, 330 Starling Road, Tamalpais Valley, for $19,500 for right of way for widening of Coyote Creek.
7. Referred a complaint about trash on beaches at Bolinas to the Bolinas Improvement Club.
8. Continued to Tuesday a request by the Local Agency Formation Commission that the building inspector not be allowed to issue building permits for houses which must be sewered until they have been annexed to a sanitary district.
9. Set hearings March 31 on rezoning requests by Erwin and Rosemary Frey, Alto; Clay and Emma Wright, Olema; and Norman and Pierina Canziani, North San Rafael.
10. Approved appointment of Opal Sharpe, registered nurse, medical department, and Peter G. Sarant, associate civil engineer, public works.
11. Approved promotion of Howard M. Lee from fire warden 1 to fire warden 2.
12. Agreed to urge State Sen. John F. McCarthy to support an increase in the state subvention for fire protection in Marin County which would bring the county $166,463 in 1964-65, or $34,002 over this year's aid.
13. Rejected three claims made against the county; Cecilia Vranjos, $1,208 for personal injury; Theodore Rooney, $4,500 for personal injury; and David and Christine Rooney, $351 for property damage to a vehicle.

Supervisors Peter H. Behr and Byron W. Leydecker were absent.

Board Hears Studies Report

Although a week's postponement did not accomplish its goal of allowing all board members to be present, the San Anselmo School District board went ahead last night with an adjourned meeting at Brookside School which featured a comprehensive report on the district's social studies program.

Three board members, plus about 20 other persons, heard the two-hour report, in which eight district teachers traced the program from the first through the eighth grade, said Supt. Stephen Parodi.

Absent from the session were board members Robert W. Corlett, who was at a meeting elsewhere in the state, and Howard McKinley, who was ill.

Parodi said the board will return to routine business at its March 17 meeting, scheduled for 8 p.m. in the Isabel Cook School faculty room.

Kentfield Trustees To Meet March 16

The next meeting of the Kentfield School District Board will be held March 16 at 7:45 a.m. in the Wolfe Grade School because of the Easter holiday, an not March 23 as is regularly scheduled.

The board "generally agreed" to an 8.2 per cent salary raise for teachers at its Monday night meeting, but did not vote approval as was stated in a headline in yesterday's Independent-Journal. The board is scheduled to take action on the revised salary schedule at its March 16 meeting.

Can't Give Land In Trade, Council Says

San Anselmo City Councilmen told a landscape contractor last night they can take parking space away from him for extension of Center Boulevard, but they cannot give him city land in return.

Harold B. Watkin of Watkin and Sibbald, landscape contractors at 6 Bridge Avenue, asked what land would be available for parking if he constructed a new building.

City Administrator Douglas Flautt showed a map of the proposed extension of Center Boulevard with an area that could be used for parking if the roadway were moved.

"If you spend public money to move the road to benefit a private party, you can't do it," said City Atty. John G. Buresh.

Watkin said that even if he doesn't build his new building, he will lose some of his present parking because of the Center Boulevard revamping.

"If you deprive us of parking, what will happen to our business?" he asked.

Buresh said that when the city condemns property, Watkin, as a lease holder on the property, will get part of the award made by the court. "You'll get your share," he said.

Watkin said he would battle the condemnation. He leases parking land from Northwestern Railroad Co. and Albert H. Siemer.

Watkin said the plan showing a eight-lane overpass for Center Boulevard and eight lanes for Sir Francis Drake Boulevard with an area between was not reasonable.

Flautt said the master plan was merely a guide and that neither an overpass nor eight lane highways would be necessarily constructed.

Antarctica, the world's highest continent, averages more than a mile above sea level. Its highest point is the 16,860-foot Vinson Vassif, in the Ellsworth Mountains 600 miles from the South Pole.

Change Artist Dazzles Attendant Out Of $9.25

A quick-change artist flimflammed the Christian Science Reading Room in San Rafael out of $9.25 last night under the guise of buying a hymn book.

Marguerite Kelly Lindgren, reading room attendant, told San Rafael police the man first wanted to buy a Bible, but switched to a hymn book because he thought the Bible was too expensive for him.

He placed a $10 bill on the counter to pay for the 75-cent hymn book and Mrs. Lindgren gave him $9.25 in change.

Then he made a series of confusing requests for change, and during the process picked up his $10 bill, she said.

Minutes later Mrs. Lindgren noticed the shortage and called police.

In 1657, officials of early New York, then called Nieuw Amsterdam, launched the first anti-litterbug campaign, fining first offenders the equivalent of $1.20.

San Rafael Firm To Set Up Account System For Novato

The Novato City Council last night hired Dalton, Graupner and Barber, San Rafael auditors, to set up an accounting system for the city.

Cost of setting up the system, which could be converted to machine accounting later, would be $15 per hour, not to exceed $400 per month. The firm will also make the annual audit of the city's books for $1,100, the council decided unanimously, with Everett Pozzi absent.

The council chose this method of getting an accounting system after it failed to find a suitable finance officer. Four top applicants were interviewed a week ago by council members and city administrator J. Julien Baget; however, John J. Angeloni, chairman of the finance committee, reported that none filled the city's need.

J. Douglas McNeil, insurance agent, asked if any Novato accounting firm had been asked to bid on setting up the system. Mayor M. E. Babe Silva said none had because the San Rafael firm had done such a good job in preparing last year's audit for Novato.

The construction job on the San Jose Boulevard realignment project was accepted as completed and final payment of $25,587 to Brown-Ely Co. of San Rafael approved. Total cost of the project when completed was estimated at $601,861. Negotiations on right-of-way have not yet been completed.

The Novato council also:

1. Referred to Lawrence A. Coleman, director of public works, the problem of a deep ditch on Olive Avenue at the Olive Street School. Coleman asked for 30 days to see if the flood control district was partially or wholly responsible for the ditch. Members of the Olive Parent-Teacher Assn. described the ditch as a hazard.
2. Approved joining the Assn. of Bay Area Governments, on motion of Mayor Silva. The mayor has opposed Novato's joining for the past four years, but said he changed his mind because of the position ABAG has taken on filling the bay and preserving the streams.
3. Gave first reading to an ordinance adopting a city seal. Councilman Lucile Cannon said of the proposed seal, which shows an Indian village on one side and the Novato City Hall on the other, "It makes me sick."
4. Hired William B. Bode, 33, as assistant city engineer at $820 per month. Bode, a graduate of University of Oregon in architecture and University of Washington in engineering, has been assistant city engineer of Antioch.
5. Authorized the state department of finance to make a population estimate, not to cost more than $245. This estimate will be ready in May and is used in alloting state funds to cities.
6. Approved payment of $4,500 to Marin County toward leveling "thrill hill" on McClay Road. Work will begin as soon as right-of-way has been granted by one more person, Silva said.
7. Accepted Benton Manor and Vineyard Terrace Unit 1 as completed.
8. Extended the time of the temporary secretary of the public works department until the end of the fiscal year, or June 30.
9. Rezoned from single to multiple family a lot owned by Russell D. Zenk at the southeast corner of De Long and Reichert Avenues, are owned by Lawrence Development Co. on Reichert Avenue south of De Long Avenue, one owned by Milton Rodoni at 1040 Third Street, and from single family to commercial, the west side of First Street from the business district to Vallejo Avenue.

Belvedere Planning Teener Recreation

Plans for a teen-age and community recreation program commencing in April began to take shape at last night's meeting of the Belvedere Recreation Commission. The commission discussed hiring a director for the program.

Resignation of Kenneth G. Wells from the commission because of "business pressures" was accepted with regret, according to Mrs. R. A. Bunker, secretary.

Smirnoff – filtered through a "mountain" of charcoal

What makes Smirnoff so crystal clear, uniquely smooth, so remarkably free of taste or odor? Every drop is filtered through 7 tons of activated charcoal. That's why it's dryer in a Martini, smoother on-the-rocks, blends so perfectly in a Screwdriver or a Bloody Mary. In fact, Smirnoff mixes with anything that pours. And it leaves you breathless.

3 Forts Could Make 1,000 Picnic Places

McCarthy Receives Briefing From State Park Aides

By WAT TAKESHITA

If Forts Baker, Barry and Cronkhite are turned over to the state for park purposes, the area could eventually accommodate 1,000 picnic sites and more than 400 camp sites, according to a preliminary survey.

State Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) received this information yesterday at an informal briefing by park officials in Sacramento.

McCarthy has introduced resolutions asking (1) the federal government to convey the land to the state and (2) state park officials to see what recreational or other uses can be made of the 3,400-acre stretch from Sausalito to Tennessee Cove.

PLANS FLEXIBLE

Two park officials in Sacramento, who gave the briefing yesterday, said they did not want to be quoted directly because nothing is definite and plans are flexible.

About 130 acres of Fort Baker land around the Waldo Tunnel has already been acquired by the state Division of Beaches and Parks. At the other end, about 190 acres above Tennessee Cove in Fort Cronkhite are also in state hands. But the remaining hills and shoreline are still military land.

Here, in brief, is the "current thinking" of state park project planners:

WIDELY USED

The choicest area for recreation appears to be Rodeo Lagoon and Beach, already widely used by fishermen, picnickers and pebble hunters.

Waterfront use would be restricted to daylight hours, with camping in the back areas away from the seashore.

A concession type of restaurant is among the possibilities.

An historical expert will study the old fortifications to determine which are of historic significance (at least 100 years old).

Surplus land, deemed of historic significance, could be turned over to the state free of charge. Non-historic areas normally go from one public agency to another at half the market value.

HISTORIC CATEGORY

Some areas in Fort Baker should qualify under the historic category, and perhaps other sites in Barry and Cronkhite.

State park officials would like to see all the military land set aside as a state park rather than have portions chopped up for private enterprise.

Senator McCarthy is working with Rep. Don H. Clausen in Washington in an effort to get the lands conveyed to the state.

Rafferty Charge Called 'False'

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An official of the State Department of Education has accused Max Rafferty of making "absolutely false" charges in his new book.

Charles Gibson, chief of the bureau of school planning, objected yesterday to the superintendent of public instruction's recollection that a school district where Rafferty once worked was forced by the state to buy more land for a high school campus than it wanted.

"It's all fancy," said Gibson, adding that Rafferty must be talking about the La Canada district that he served as superintendent for a year before being elected state superintendent in 1962.

Rancher Out Of Congress Race

Clement F. Vanoni, 60, Geyserville rancher, yesterday withdrew from the race for Democratic nomination for Congress for health reasons.

This leaves two Democrats in the race — George McCabe, Sonoma State College administrator, and Merle P. Orchard, Ukiah attorney. Winner in June will face incumbent Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) in November.

Both McCabe and Orchard will speak at 8 o'clock tonight at Bermuda Palms in San Rafael.

Vanoni, in announcing his withdrawal, threw his support to Orchard.

Clustered Buildings Rejected By Planners

Plans for 130 dwelling units in clustered buildings on Terra Linda hillside were rejected last night by the San Rafael Planning Commission, which agreed with Interim Planner Daniel P. Coleman that clustering the buildings is no excuse for increasing the density.

Coleman, who has appeared before the commission previously as engineer for subdivisions (including Peacock Gap, San Rafael's largest), appeared last night for the first time in his role as city planner. He began serving last week on an interim basis while City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen recruits a new planner.

Coleman recommended denial of Pell Development Co.'s application for planned community zoning and a use permit for Highlands of Terra Linda, on which the commission held its second public hearing.

He said "the density of the clustered development should be approximately equal" to that of single-family zoning, also open areas should be accessable, "not surrounded by cut or fill banks."

The Highlands, northwest of Oleander Drive and abutting Orchid Drive, is in an unzoned area shown on the county master plan at the time of San Rafael annexation as for single-family dwellings on 10,000 square foot lots. Such development would allow 56 dwellings instead of 120.

The commission did not deny the application, but returned it for redesign by architect Roger F. Hooper to meet Coleman's recommendations. Some of the commissioners indicated they would approve more than 56 units, but certainly not 120.

Another troublesome Terra Linda proposal, that for Northgate North by developer Douglas M. Christensen, was put over two weeks. This development, for an office building, motel and convention complex and two service stations, was returned to the planning department by the city council for working out details — including legal covenants, acceptable to the city attorney, binding the land to the uses indicated. Coleman said this had not yet been done.

Ames Ford Sales came in for a tongue-lashing from commissioners because of failure to install sidewalk and curbs and gutters in front of its new headquarters on Francisco Boulevard. Contractor William H. McDevitt, as representative of Ames, had agreed to these conditions when the commission granted a permit for the building. But last night Thomas E. Schaal, attorney for Ames, said his client had been unaware of the conditions and had the walk blacktopped instead of installing concrete sidewalks.

"It would appear to me there has been almost deliberate misrepresentation," declared Commissioner Charles J. Hendrickson, citing other matters in which Ames had departed from design specifications. He was joined in his criticisms by other commissioners.

However, the commission granted Ames one year to install the sidewalks and curbs, provided the company posts a performance guarantee bond with the city. Schaal agreed to do this.

Problems of who owns Mariposa Avenue and whether Loch Lomond Highlands has been zoned bedeviled the commission.

B and T Construcltion Co. sought architectural approval for a 10-unit apartment building at Woodland and Mariposa avenues. All ingress and egress would be on Mariposa. The commission found nothing wrong with it except the question of whether Mariposa, which the company agreed to pave, is a city street. Asst. Planner Joan Castrillon said city maps show it as a private street. The application was held over two weeks to find the answer.

Hujon Inc. sought approval of resubdivision of two lots in Loch Lomond Highlands Unit One. The commission found nothing wrong with the lots, but one city map showed the area is zoned for single-family residences, while another showed it unzoned. A two-week delay was taken to find out whether rezoning is involved, with a recommendation that if so, all of the subdivision be zoned single residential at the same time.

The San Rafael Planning Commission Also:

1. Approved planned community zoning and use permit for San Rafael Newport Co.'s 14-unit condominium between Porto Bello and Harbor Estates, subject to a long string of conditions imposed by Coleman and his predecessor, David DuBiel. Robert Green, partner in the company, argued unsuccessfully for removal of a requirement for a chain closing off access to Aqua Vista Avenue.

2. Granted architectural approval for a 10-unit apartment for Ellen Ross on Irwin Street between Mission and Belle avenues.

3. Approved revised plans for the Northgate Medical Building at Las Gallinas Avenue and Northgate Drive, proposed by Frank Cafferata, which eliminate necessity for reaching underbuilding parking via a long alleyway.

4. Granted architectural approval for 34 townhouse units to be built by Kaehler - Farrar Development Co. at Canal, Larkspur and Novato streets, subject to further revision of parking and landscaping to meet Coleman's requirements.

5. Delayed two weeks its decision as to whether J. Harry Goff must tear out a carport on his property at 110 Linden Lane which was built without a permit and extends into the side yard setback.

6. Raised several objections to a proposal for a 40-foot revolving sign for Bianco Motors on the former E Street School property at Fourth and E streets, but delayed decision two weeks as no one was present who was authorized to speak for Bianco.

7. Granted architectural approval for an addition to a warehouse building on Woodland Avenue near Dubois Street for Rickards, Davis and Beckstrom.

8. Granted architectural approval and use permit to Harry Heifetz Co. for a professional office and pharmacy building at Professional Center Parkway and Frontage Road.

9. Approved the tentative map of Robert McCarthy's Loch Lomond Unit 8, subject to a series of restrictions suggested by Coleman.

10. Approved a three-lot subdivision by John Ribeiro at Bungalow Avenue and McCoy Road, subject to provision of more off-street parking and assurance of adequate water supply.

11. Approved realignment of several Fairhills lots, requested by North Bay Associates.

12. Held up for two weeks action on Mary B. Pierucci's application for a four-lot subdivision on Greenwood Avenue between Redwood Drive and Madrona Avenue, Coleman suggesting the lot layout could be improved.

13. On Coleman's advice that the tentative map for Terra Linda Unit 22 of 62 lots by Kenney Homes, Inc., had been found unacceptable but the applicant had agreed to redesign it, rescheduled consideration for March 24.

14. On motion of Commissioner Hendrickson, directed the staff to study whether site requirements for apartments in the older part of the city, now 1,000 square feet per unit, should be increased to the 1,500 square feet per unit required in East San Rafael and the Terra Linda annexations.

All seven commissioners were present.

San Anselmo Wants Value In New Park

San Anselmo city councilmen want to know what they'll get for their money before they'll approve a survey of Memorial Park.

At last night's meeting, the council received a request from the city parks and recreation commission for $1,440 to hire an expert to draw up a master plan for the park.

Councilman William Franchini said he couldn't see spending $1,440 just to have someone tell the council that the big baseball diamond should be moved back.

Councilman Woodrow V. Capurro wondered why the council and recreation commission couldn't plan the layout of the park.

"I don't think we're qualified," said Recreation Commissioner Walter J. Anderson. "This is a long-range plan."

The park should have a master plan and the proposed layout would include not only the baseball diamond but horseshoe pits, volleyball courts and other facilities, he said.

City Administrator Douglas Flautt said the park needs rest rooms, but he thinks the city should have an overall plan before it spends any more money on park improvements.

The council authorized Flautt to draw up a contract for the park job so the city would know exactly what it would get for its money if it approves the expenditure.

The council also received a request for $1,000 from the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce for the 1964-65 year, double the city's present contribution.

George G. Washburn, executive of the chamber, said costs have been rising but the city's contribution hasn't been changed for years.

Councilmen decided to consider the request during budget sessions.

They learned that they will have to adopt the county's uniform animal control ordinance to qualify for the county's enforcement program.

Councilmen wanted to keep the city ordinance, which they felt was adequate. Flautt said the county would not accept San Anselmo's present ordinance because it is "too far apart" from the uniform ordinance.

"I don't know why they're forcing this," said City Atty. John G. Buresh. "The city's ordinance is substantially in conformity with theirs."

If the city doesn't participate in the county program, it would have to hire a dog catcher and provide its own pound, Flautt said.

The council referred the county ordinance to Buresh for study, and continued the matter to March 24. The new ordinance would boost the annual dog license fee from $3 to $4.

The San Anselmo City Council also:

1. Received $867.20 from the California Peace Officers' Training Fund, reimbursing the city for half the pay of four police officers during their period of special training last year. The funds come from a 10 per cent assessment added to fines in criminal cases.

2. Approved request of Yellow Cab Co. to increase its fleet in San Anselmo from two to three cabs.

3. Authorized the planning commission to send a member to a landscaping and planning class at the University of California at Berkeley at cost of the $25 class fee.

4. Decided to ask for sketches of the proposed canopy at the Greyhound bus station ramp on Center Boulevard, before making a decision on the company's request to install the canopy.

Budget Due In Assembly Next Week

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The chairman of the Assembly's budget - screening committee hopes to have the record 3.66-billion-dollar fiscal 1964-65 proposal on the floor next week.

Assemblyman Robert W. Crown (D-Alameda) said yesterday he plans to have the heavily Democratic Ways and Means Committee vote on the budget next Monday, if possible.

The statement came as another 317.37 - million - dollar hunk won committee approval bringing to about 800 million dollars the amount so far cleared.

Social Welfare, Youth Authority and Corrections Department outlays were approved. Also given the nod was more than 4 million dollars to finance at least 5-120 funds appropriated in fiscal 1964-65.

Polaris Falls Short Of Mark

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The Navy's mightiest missile, an advanced Polaris A-3, weaved back and fourth after about 75 seconds of flight today and plunged into the Atlantic far short of its target.

The bullet-shaped rocket, designed to be fired from submerged submarines, roared from a land pad and streaked into the clear blue sky.

But seconds after the first stage separated on schedule, the upper stage began to veer off course.

The missile had been expected to drop its instrumented nose cone in a target area less than 1,000 miles to the southeast.

Over-40 Jobless Conference Set

Van Nuys, April 15; Eureka, April 16; Sacramento, April 23; San Diego, May 7; Pasadena, May 20; Oakland, May 21; and Long Beach, May 26.

Playground Underneath Building Is Suggested

The San Rafael Board of Education, launching its recently approved 3.3-million-dollar construtión program, listened thoughtfully last night to a suggestion that a new school in the canal area be elevated to provide part of the playground area underneath the building.

Supt. Bert C. Corona made the suggestion saying the land is so expensive that even a four-acre site would cost about $153,000.

Since the land is fill and would require construction on piers, he suggested the elevated buildings as a means of increasing usage of the land area.

Board members took no action on the suggestion, but member Bella H. Aaron thought it might be better to acquire property outside the area and bus canal children to it.

Corona argued against this, saying the saving in land cost would soon be lost to cost of bus operation.

The board got its building program officially under way by authorizing sale of $650,000 in bonds approved Feb. 18 by voters.

Corona reported that $347,000 of this would go to repayment to the general fund of money borrowed for payments on the recently completed Glenwood School and for purchase of more land at West End School.

Other funds would go to planning six classrooms and a library at Davidson School, three classrooms and a library at Sun Valley School, and a kindergarten and four classrooms at Galinas School.

It would also provide $100,000 toward site purchase. Corona said it appears a new school will be needed first in the canal area.

The bond sale, to carry the first six months of the construction program, would also provide $45,000 to purchase four portable classrooms, two for Davidson Junior High School and one each at Laurel Dell Intermendiate and West End schools.

Corona said this, with possible transport of some Davidson pupils to Santa Venetia Junior High School, should avoid double sessions next fall.

The San Rafael Board of Education last night also:

1. Agreed to seek an opinion from the state attorney general on reporting action in closed sessions. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney reported the board could decide whether minutes of a closed session would be made public. But Mrs. Aaron also an attorney, thought he was wrong.
2. Approved sabbatical leaves for Francis Allison of Laurel Dell Intermediate and Mrs. Caroline Wagner of Short School for the next school year.
3. Heard a report on the high school district's adult education program.
4. Set a closed meeting for teacher evaluation reports for 7:30 p.m. March 19.
5. Asked for bids at 11 a.m. March 31 on conversion of classrooms to science laboratories at Terra Linda High School.
6. Postponed discussion of the future of E Street School as a possible administrative headquarters until March 24.
7. Agreed to additional meetings March 19 and April 21 on the budget, to try to cut down length of meetings. Last night's session continued until almost midnight.
8. Met in closed session for half an hour but were unable to decide on an assistant superintendent for the elementary school district.
9. Learned that 25 architects have asked to be considered for future school construction planned under the recently approved bond program.

Three or four centuries ago Watusis wandered southward in Africa, probably from Ethiopia or Egypt.

Nursery School Ordered Closed

The San Rafael Board of Education last night ordered that the cooperative nursery school building on the San Rafael High School campus be abandoned.

The action came after the board learned from county counsel that it would be liable to civil and criminal litigation if there should be injury or loss of life in a fire in the building. The board asked for the legal opinion after learning two weeks ago that the structure did not meet the building code requirements for one-hour fire walls.

Architect Carl F. Gromme told the board last night it would cost $25,000 to make the building meet the code.

In issuing its order to vacate the board agreed that it would do what it could to help parents find other quarters.

The revised California Motor Vehicle Code summary, dated January, 1964, is being offered at no charge by the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce, 85 Throckmorton Avenue, Granville L. Beedle, secretary-manager, said today. The booklet is a summary of laws and rules used by California drivers.

Marin Schools Have Reputation As Good Losers In Cage Tourney

We may not have champion of champions talent here in the Marin Athletic League, but we're sure good losers.

MAL representatives have never won the Tournament of Champions which begins its 18th annual run tomorrow over at Berkeley. Nor have they gone as far as the finals. In fact, the best a local team has done was a third place by Drake in 1957, then as North Bay League representative; and consolation victories by Drake in 1958 and by Tamalpais last year. This year's Marin rep, San Rafael, is batting zero in T of C "batting averages" with four losses in as many tries.

However, the Marin League leads all others as winner of rooting section trophies with six. Good sports, our kids.

Only two Marinites have been picked on the T of C All-Star teams, and both from Drake: Bill Gallagher and Ron Cox in 1957 and Gallagher again in 1958. Gallagher is one of only five two-time All-Star winners.

Incidentally, Bob Garibaldi, the Giants' bonus pitcher, was a T of C All-Star with Stagg High of Stockton in 1959.

COACH CAL Riemcke of College of Marin cringed every time Santa Rosa's John Livie scored a point against the Tars in Monday night's Golden Valley Conference championship playoff game.

You see, Livie, a Petaluman, had every intention of attending Marin, but switched at the last minute a couple of years ago when Petaluma was voted into the Santa Rosa Junior College District.

The 20 points he scored in Santa Rosa's 86-63 win over Marin were very painful to Riemcke, indeed. And as the Santa Rosans headed south for the State J. C. Tournament, Riemcke must have pointed a finger at Livie and muttered, "There but for you go I."

Livie's older brother, Lynn, was a Marin star before the district switch.

MARIN HAS 10 professional ball players now in spring training, including Gerald Ard of Fairfax, Ron Blum and Doug Wilson of Larkspur, Ron Cole of Mill Valley, Neal Austinson, Nino Geminiani and Vince Pallavicini of San Anselmo and John Boccabella, Ken Anderson and John Spadoni of San Rafael.

The I-J again will publish weekly reports of their progress once the regular season begins.

HARRY GRANT of Novato was a gallery favorite Sunday as he competed in the American Bowling Congress tournament at Oakland.

Harry bowled a 459 series (only a 153 average), which isn't such a much. But Harry is 75 years young and the spectators loved his performance.

After the hectic day of bowling in the big tourney, Grant celebrated at Nave Lanes by dancing with his wife of 53 years.

He's quite a favorite at Nave Lanes, bowling in five leagues a week, including two on Monday nights. He carries an average between 175 and 180.

What will you be doing when you're 75?

LYLE FISHER, a full-time mathematics teacher and part-time coach at Redwood High, has compiled quite an enviable record tutoring freshman football and basketball teams.

This year his Redwood frosh cagers won the Marin Athletic League title for the fourth straight year. Last fall his frosh gridders also won the MAL title.

Of course athletic success is nothing new to Fisher. In St. Louis back in 1951 his high school baseball team won the Missouri State championship.

REDWOOD HIGH now holds both the team offense and defense varsity basketball records in the Marin Athletic record books. Three years ago the Giant team set the defensive mark by limiting opponents to a paltry average of 38.5 points per game. This season the Giants added the offensive record to their collection with 63 per game.

Now if they could only combine the two in one season—wow!

Drake Cage Teams Feted At Banquet

Drake High School basketball teams were honored at a banquet given by the Drake Benchwarmers recently.

Lorry Galassi and Chet Carlisle were named most valuable players on the varsity and Class B teams respectively. Captain plaques were presented to Bob Brackett on the varsity and Ron Skellenger on the "B's."

Scholarship awards went to Rod Keener, varsity, and Skellenger, Class B. The sportsmanship trophies were presented to Bracket for the varsity and Eric Iverson for the Bees.

Award winners for the junior varsity, freshmen, and Class C teams were Will Curley, Karl Stein and Peter Forni, captains; Stan Carter, Michael Simpton and Dan Elliot, sportsmanship; Bill Ingram, Karl Stein and Wayne Onizuke, most valuable players.

PREP CAGE CLASSIC OPENS TOMORROW

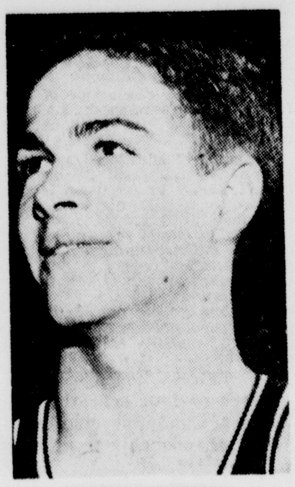

San Rafael Faces Tough S.F. Champs

ROD MONTI

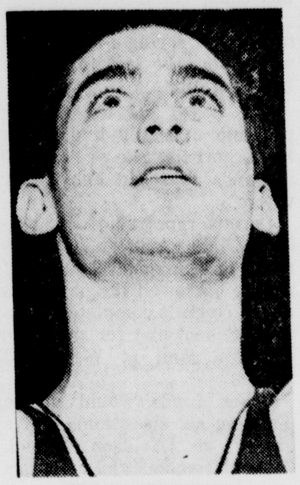

JOHN McKINNON

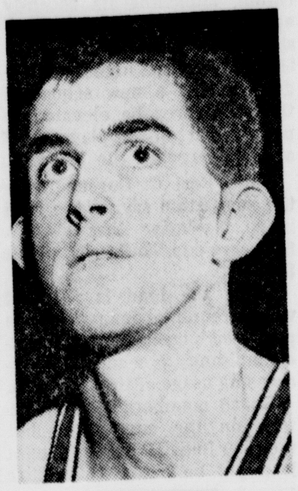

WADE ROBERTS

RICH AHERN

STEVE SPURLING

PAT HAVEN

A rough task lies ahead of the cagers from San Rafael High School as they get ready to open play tomorrow in the 18th annual Tournament of Champions in Harmon gym, University of California campus, Berkeley.

The Bulldogs, co-champs of the Marin Athletic League and fourth place winners of the Camellia Tournament last week in Sacramento, will take on Sacred Heart of San Francisco in the opening game of the tournament tomorrow at 4:30. Sacred Heart is rated one of the tourney favorites.

Other first day pairings are: Hayward vs. Napa, 6 p.m.; Fremont vs. Albany, 7:30 p.m., and Harry Ells vs. Salinas, 9 p.m. The classic continues Friday and Saturday.

San Rafael has yet to taste victory in TOC play. The Red and White troops lost to McClymonds, 51-33, and to Stagg, 39-27, in 1959, and then in 1962 lost to McClymonds again, 63-44, and to Pittsburg, 43-32.

It will be Sacred Heart's fourth straight year in the TOC. The Irish have won four and lost four of their eight games in tourney action. They were runners-up to McClymonds in 1962 for the title and came in third last year after losing to powerful McClymonds in the second round 49-47 in a game that most observers thought should have been the championship game.

San Rafael's scoring punch, when he is not injured, is Rod Monti, a 6-3 forward. He has been slowed by an ankle injury but Coach Mike Diaz reported yesterday he is "much improved."

"Monti should be almost back to normal for the tourney," Diaz said.

Helping the scoring drive for San Rafael this past month has been guard Wade Roberts (5-11), a good shooter and ball handler. Center John McKinnon (6-4) is the big rebounder for the Bulldogs and was named to the All-Tournament team at the Camellia tourney last week.

The other starters for San Rafael are forward Rich Ahern (6-1) and guard Steve Spurling (6-0).

Sacred Heart is led by Bob Heaney (6-5), a forward who was named the 1964 All-City basketball Player of the Year by the San Francisco Prep Writers Assn. He and teammate Vance DeVost, a 5-7 guard, made the first squad in the All-City selections. Center Joe Callaghan (6-4), from Sacred Heart, was named to the second team.

The other two Irish starters, forward Terry O'Brien (6-1) and guard John Pezzola (5-10) were given All-City honorable mentions. It shows the San Francisco Academic Athletic Assn. entry has a well-rounded ball club.

Monti is San Rafael's top point producer with an average of 18.8 points per game. During the latter part of the season, after Monti's ankle injury, Roberts has been consistently leading the scoring attack. Monti, McKinnon and Roberts were named All Marin Athletic League performers this year.

Sacred Heart is led by Heaney with a 16.5 average and Callaghan with a 12.7 average. The Irish averaged 62.9 points per game and allowed an average of 42.6 while winning 23 of their 26 games. Heaney was named to the TOC all-star team last year.

San Rafael has averaged 58.8 and allowed 46.6 while rolling to 20 wins and 8 losses this season.

The Bulldogs were hoping to shake some colds before the tourney begins tomorrow. Nursing colds are McKinnon, Mike Menne, Ahern and Spurling.

About San Rafael's prospects tomorrow, Diaz said, "We weren't given a chance against Stagg in the Camellia opener, but we beat them. On a given day, San Rafael is capable of giving anybody a good game. If everything clicks, I think we'll have a good chance."

LISTON ARRESTED; THREATENS COP, 'I'LL WHIP YOU'

DENVER (AP) — Former heavyweight boxing champion Sonny Liston was arrested last night by a traffic officer who said Liston was driving 76 miles an hour in a 30 mile an hour zone.

Patrolman James Snider said after stopping Liston's Cadillac he found in a search of Liston that he was carrying a seven shot .22 caliber pistol with six cartridges and an empty shell.

Snider, alone when he stopped Liston's car, said he had to call another patrol car for help in handcuffing Liston "when he became belligerent." He was taken in handcuffs to police headquarters.

The officer said when he told Liston he was taking him to jail, the burly boxer snarled: "I'm going to whip you, and I can."

At one point, Snyder said, "He came at me," but later calmed down and was driven to the police station.

Snider said he charged Liston with reckless and careless driving, speeding, carrying a concealed weapon and driving without a valid Colorado operator's license. Liston was booked at the jail but gained his immediate release by posting $300 bond, Snider said.

The officer, 5-foot-10, 185-pounds, said he didn't know who Liston was "until I got down to headquarters and one of the other officers who knew him, said 'Hello Sonny'."

Snider said another person in Liston's car was not taken into custody and drove his car away. Snider said he didn't know his identity.

The arrest took place on East 17th Avenue within a mile of Liston's residence in East Denver.

Snider said Liston offered no resistance getting into his patrol car but on the trip down to the police station "began to argue and that's when I called for another car. I said I had a customer that was beginning to get pretty rough."

With the help of the other officer, Snider said he put handcuffs on Liston and drove to the headquarters with no other difficulties.

HIGH SPEED

Plymouth rocks racing world with sweep in Daytona "500"

According to the record book for stock cars in competition, there is no higher average speed for 500 miles than the 154.334 m.p.h. set by a competition-equipped 1967 Plymouth in winning last month's Daytona "500."

Adding to that glory is the fact that two more 1964 Plymouths finished 2nd and 3rd for a decisive Plymouth sweep. That suggests that Plymouths were not only the swiftest cars in the competition, but that they're built to stay in there all the way.

For the millions of racing fans and high-performance enthusiasts across the country, Plymouth is proud of its "high speed" victory at Daytona.

YOUR SPEED

Plymouth beats Ford & Chevrolet in tests of showroom V-8s

This competition was more "your speed."

At Plymouth's request, an independent testing company bought and compared showroom models of Plymouth, Ford and Chevrolet.

The cars were comparably equipped standard V-8s—cars people buy. And the tests were of "things people buy a car for"—acceleration, handling, braking, and gas economy.

In test after test, Plymouth accelerated best, handled best, braked best, and got the best gas mileage. This is the kind of competition Plymouth most likes to win. "High speed" or "your speed," these 1964 Plymouths are tough to beat!

Alou-Hart 'Gamble' Looks Good For S.F.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Jesus Alou tripled, Jimmy Hart doubled and Alvin Dark breathed easier.

Alou and Hart could well be the make or break men on the roster of the San Francisco Giants this season and nobody knows it better than Manager Dark who professes himself pleased with their early showing.

The two youngsters paced the attack yesterday when the Giants remained undefeated in the Cactus League with their fourth straight victory, a 5-1 decision over the Boston Red Sox.

Each collected two hits, making Hart 3 for 13 times at bat and Alou 5 for 18. Nothing sensational but yesterday's performanec included extra base hits for each.

Alou tripled in the first inning and scored on a Hart sacrifice. The youngest Alou beat out an infield single in the seventh and Hart doubled him around to score.

That opened a three-run rally that Bosox errors kept alive. The Giants scored thanks to an error in the third also when Willie Mays was safe when first baseman Dick Stuart dropped a throw. Willie scored on a two-out double by Tom Haller.

Bob Shaw won credit for his second Cactus League victory as he gave up only one hit in the first three innings and that was a fluke. Chuck Schilling hit a high fly that went over rookie Arlo Engel's head in left field for a double.

The only Bosox run came on a single by Frank Malzone and double by Stuart in the sixth off veteran Don Larsen. A double play from Jim Davenport at second to Jose Pagan at short to Cap Peterson at first cut down a potential rally that inning when Boston loaded the bases.

Shaw came to the Giants in the winter trade with Milwaukee that brought fellow pitcher Bob Hendley and catcher Del Crandall to San Francisco in exchange for Felipe Alou, Billy Hoeft, Ed Bailey, and Ernie Bowman.

The trade also gave Jesus Alou his chance to become a major leaguer, replacing brother Felipe in right field for the Giants. Even more would seem to depend on his making the grade than in Hart doing it. For if Jim fails, Davenport can go back to third and Chuck Hiller play second—the posts they manned when San Francisco won the pennant in 1962.

Hart recovered more rapidly than expected from a thumb injury suffered Monday when he was hit by a pitched ball. However, he did uncork two wild throws which might have resulted from continuing soreness in the thumb.

As the Giants took today off for some golf, Willie McCovey remains on the injury list, suffered from a pulled groin muscle. The regular left fielder has encountered the same ailment in previous springs and it hasn't hampered him after the early training season.

Results Of Marin Sports Contest

Track stars Keith Krieger and Ellis Williams of Tamalpais High School and golfing sensation Barry Hachmyer of Novato High School were among the standout performers yesterday in in a busy day of Marin prep spring sports.

Krieger broke an old Tam record dating back to 1936 when he ran the mile in 4:22.8, and Williams broke another school record in the 100-yard dash when he sprinted the century in 9.8. The record run by Williams was costly, however, as he pulled a leg muscle which will keep him out of action for one or two weeks.

Hachmyer opened the golfing season by shooting a two-under-par 34, at Indian Valley golf course.

USF-Utah St., UCLA-Seattle In Region Playoff Friday

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Sixth-ranked Oregon State fell before ball-stealing Seattle 61-57 last night in a national collegiate basketball playoff doubleheader that also saw Utah State advance over Arizona State 92-90.

That will give Seattle a chance to match its set of pressing guards — Charley Williams and Peller Phillips — against UCLA's more publicized pair of Walt Hazard and Fred Slaughter, Friday night in the next round of NCAA play.

Utah State will play San Francisco in the first game of the Friday round at Corvallis, Ore., at 7:30 p.m. Undefeated UCLA, top ranked in the nation, will play Seattle in the second at 9:30 p.m.

Both of last night's games went down to the wire. Utah State fell 15 points behind in the first half and then abandoned its zone defense. As the pace stepped up, 6-foot-6, 225-pound Wayne Estes got hot and led the way with 38 points. It was his basket that put Utah State ahead to stay in the closing minutes.

Seattle lost two regular season games to Oregon State, but made the third a charm. Things could scarcely have looked darker, however, when five minutes were left. Seattle had lost its two backboard men — John Tresvant and L. H. Wheeler — on fouls and trailed 55-45.

The 6-foot-tall Williams played the key hole in the remaining time. Held to only four points up to that time, he poured in eight points before the buzzer. He came up with a three-point play that put Seattle ahead to stay with 2:16 to go.

Seven-foot-tall Mel Counts scored 27 points for Oregon State but Seattle stopped everyone else.

Second place winners were Bill Goelz of Terra Linda, 123-pound class, and Frank Holton of San Anselmo, 165-pound class. Placing third in the 132-pound class was Fran Gearhart of San Anselmo.

200 Youngsters Compete In Meet

A total of 140 boys and 60 girls competed in the 85 races of the Kiwanis Track-Relays held at Novato High School last week. Children were represented from all grade schools in the greater Novato area.

Double winners were John Larin, Rodney Yee, Ricky Wilson, Sharon Wilhelm, Margaret Henderson, Darlene Pariani, Lesli Marks, Maryne Payne, Paul Jones, Jeff Weber, Mark Allen, Dawn Damas, Karen Swenson, Bill Colwell, Jeff Moats and Steve Walag.

Cain New Commodore Of Power Squadron

Al W. Cain of Larkspur is the new commander of the Marin Power Squadron which held its annual meeting last Saturday at the Tiburon Peninsula Club.

Other officers who were elected and installed are John E. Everson, San Anselmo, lieutenant commander; Robert M. Kell, San Rafael, first lieutenant; Rex Thompson, Mill Valley, secretary; and John Keffe, Corte Madera, treasurer.

The retiring commander is E. F. Sweeney of San Rafael.

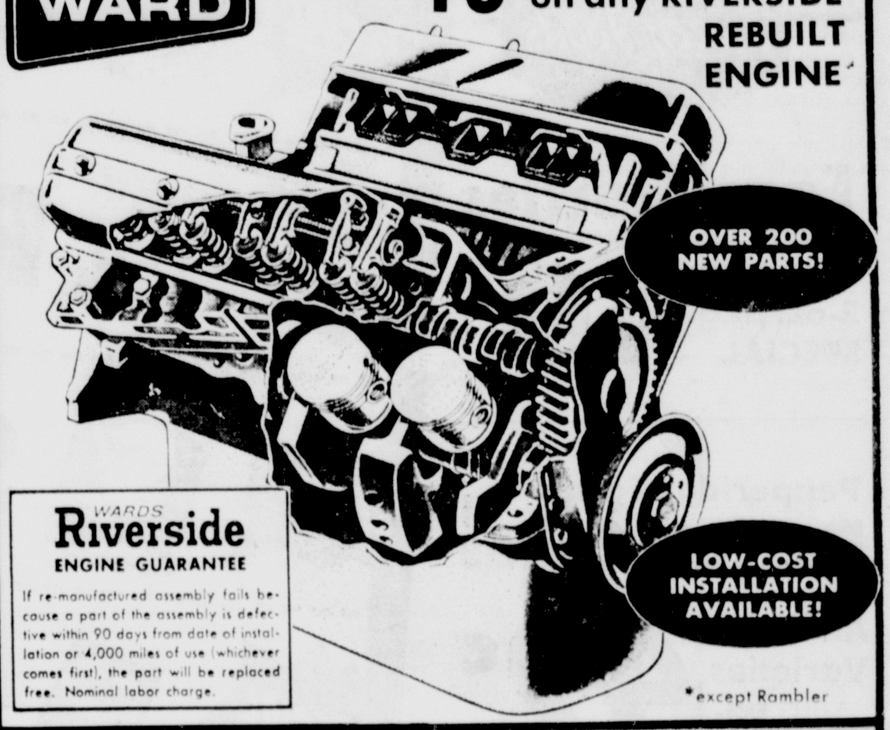

Countywide Cage Tourney Starts

A countywide invitational basketball tournament for seventh and eighth grade boys will be held tomorrow, Friday and Saturday in the San Rafael High School gym.

The tournament is being sponsored by the Marin County Superintendent of Schools Office, the San Rafael and San Anselmo recreation departments and the participating schools.

Schools in the tourney will be Richardson Bay, Ross, St. Anselm's, Vallecito and West Marin.

The first game of the single-elimination tournament will be at 4:30 tomorrow afternoon. The championship game will be Saturday at 10 a.m. A perpetual trophy will be awarded to the winning team, with ribbons going to all participating players.

REFRESHING AND different as the spring is turkey baked and served with a luscious honey-fruit sauce. Serve with fruit garnish such as sliced oranges, grape clusters, banana sections or fresh peach halves.

Fruit Sauce Gives A Springtime Look

Turkey has a really bright, springtime look and delicious flavor when baked and served with a luscious honey-fruit sauce. It's as refreshing as a spring breeze and just right to serve for an important patio dinner party.

Throughout the coming months, you'll find a wide selection of turkeys and turkey products available at a reasonable cost. They range in size from the small 6-pound fryer-roaster to the 22-pound Tom. Select a fryer-roaster for this recipe.

TURKEY, HONEY-FRUIT STYLE

1 6-8 pound fryer-roaster turkey
1 cup sauterne wine
1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple
Cloves and nutmeg to taste
½ cup honey

Cut turkey in halves or quarters. Brown pieces in hot fat in large frying pan. Arrange pieces in baking dish and pour over wine. Cover and bake at 375°F. for 45 minutes to one hour, or until fork tender. Heat crushed pineapple with cloves, nutmeg and honey. Pour fruit sauce over turkey for last 15 minutes of cooking time. Serve with fruit garnish such as sliced oranges, grape clusters, banana sections or fresh peach halves.

Uncle Sam Gives Vitamin Advice

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Some vitamin-filled advice from the U.S. Department of Agriculture:

In trimming cabbage, remember that the core, as well as the leaves, is high in vitamin C.

Broccoli leaves have much more vitamin A than the stalks or flower buds. If broccoli leaves are tender plan to eat them. Keep them cool and moist until they're ready for use.

Fryers Are Perfect Quick, Easy Meals

If you remember the days of spring chickens don't mention the fact aloud—unless you are proud of your advancing years! Until about 30 years ago the only fryer chickens available in the market were a 'by-product" of the egg industry. The males and other birds determined to be potentially low egg producers were sent to market early in the year. The remainder were kept to furnish our egg supply.

Today, the chicken fryer industry is a tremendous business, and very efficient. We now have fryers year-round . . . fresh or frozen.

Today, fryers are ready for market in 6 to 8 weeks, and they require only 2 pounds of food to get one pound of fryer. This efficiency has enabled the fryer industry to provide a quality product at a retail price about 30 per cent below the price of 10 years ago. And this is the time to remind ourselves that this trend is contrary to the general trend in other food prices. While chicken prices have dropped, other food prices have increased. This also helps to explain why our anuual consumption of chicken, per person, has increased from 17 to 30 pounds.

Fryers are perfect for quick, easy meals for indoor and outdoor cookery. The meat is a high-quality protein food, low in fat, and contains minerals and B vitamins.

Hurry fryers home from the market. Pop the frozen ones right into the freezer. If you bought fresh fryers, loosen the wrapper, or rewrap loosely in waxed paper, foil, or saran wrap. Store immediately in the refrigerator. Plan to use within two days.

Wash fryers in cold water just before using. Frozen fryers are easier to handle if completely thawed before cooking. To thaw, leave wrapped and in the refrigerator overnight, or (if you are in a hurry) you may unwrap and thaw fryers in running, cold water.

Make Your Own Easter Parade Of Tasty Gingerbread Animals

Construction of appropriate forms from gingerbread is an ancient practice followed by the Egyptians, Romans and Germanic tribes long ago.

Early monasteries excelled the art and certain monks were renowned for their creative touch with gingerbreads. Here are some ideas for Easter animals.

GINGERBREAD ANIMALS

½ cup shortening
½ cup sugar
½ cup unsulphured molasses
1 egg, separated
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon ground cloves
1 teaspoon ginger
1½ teaspoons cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg

Cream together shortening, sugar and molasses. Add egg yolk; mix well. (Reserve egg white for frosting.) Sift together flour, salt, baking soda, baking powder, and spices. Stir in flour mixture; mix well. Chill. Roll out dough ¼-inch thick on lightly floured board or pastry cloth. Cut with egg-shaped and animal cookie cutters—rounds for stands* if desired—and place on ungreased baking sheets. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) 8 to 10 minutes. Cool. Decorate with ornamental frosting.

Yield: Approximately 50 cookies.

*To make stands for centerpiece animals, cut out a round for each animal. Bake as indicated. To attach, put small amount of frosting in center of round cookie, and press base of animal into the frosting.

ORNAMENTAL FROSTING

Sift together 1¼ cups sifted confectioner's sugar and ⅛ teaspoon cream of tartar. Add reserved egg whites and ¼ teaspoon vanilla. Beat with rotary or electric beater until frosting holds its shape. Cover with damp cloth until ready to use.

DAFFODILLIES

¾ cup shortening
¾ cup sugar
½ cup unsulphured molasses
1 egg
2¼ cups sifted flour
1½ teaspoons baking soda
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ginger
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon ground cloves

Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add molasses and egg; mix well. Sift in remaining ingredients; mix thoroughly. Place in freezer 1 hour, or chill in refrigerator 2 hours. Form into approximately 1-inch balls; roll in granulated sugar. Bake on greased baking sheets in a moderate oven 375°F.) 10 to 12 minutes.

Approximately four dozen cookies.

For The Busiest Person-- A Stir And Bake Casserole

Here is a tuna casserole that is almost a stir-and-bake affair, excellent for busy days . . .

(Serves 4 or 5)

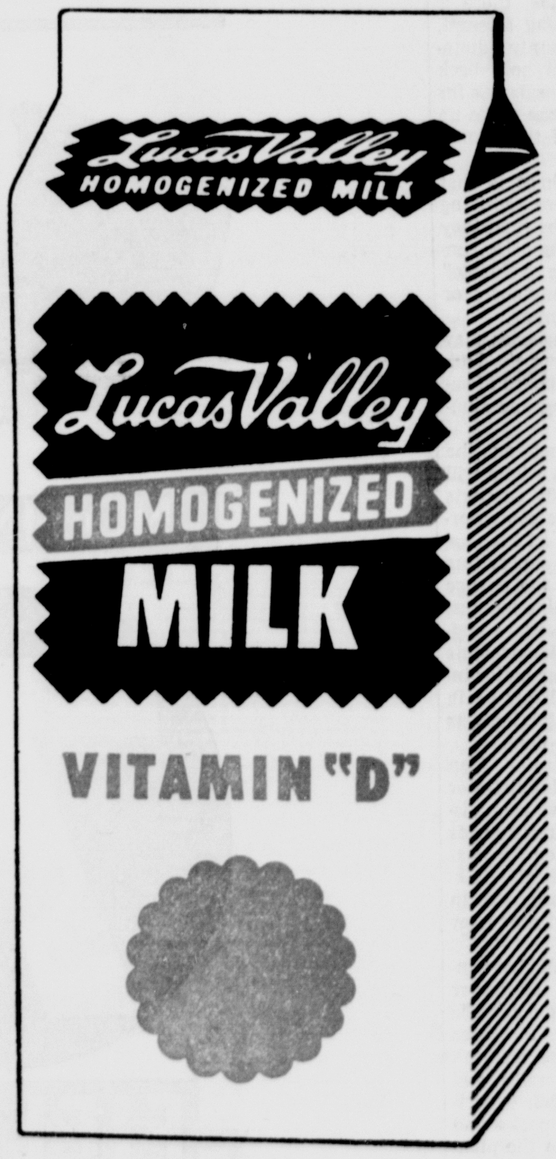

1 cup white dinner wine
1 cup water
1 cup raw rice
1 cup cubed Cheddar cheese
1 chicken bouillon cube (optional)
¼ cup chopped green onion
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon crushed basil leaves
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 (7-oz.) can tuna
1 (10-oz.) package frozen peas

Combine wine, water, rice, ½ cup cheese, bouillon cube, onion, salt, basil and pepper in a 1½ quart casserole. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 to 60 minutes, or just until rice is tender. Drain tuna; flake coarsely.

Pour boiling water over peas; let stand 3 or 4 minutes, then drain well. Stir tuna and peas into rice casserole. Sprinkle remaining ½ cup cheese over top. Return to oven about 5 minutes for cheese to melt.

This Easter, a charming parade of gingerbread animals enlivens the scene. Bunnies, ducks, and chicks make their way across the table as a centerpiece, joined in the march by their stuffed-toy counterparts. Or you may use the edible critters to provide Easter basket fillers, Easter gifts for neighborhood children, or to fill your own cookie tray. And, should you think the cookies are for kids only . . . just set tooth to one!

Tangled Fight Brewing Over Raises For County Employees

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK
(Last of three articles.)

There is a complicated fight brewing over proposed pay raises for county employees for the 1964-65 budget. A general salary increase, which could cost $225,000, has been proposed, along with variations.

The increase, if approved by the Marin County Board of Supervisors, will be one of the major impacts on next year's budget, expected to set a record at 18.5 million dollars or more.

The biggest increase in the budget from its present level of nearly 17 million dollars will undoubtedly come for the welfare department, now about a third of the budget. The next largest would be if the raise were granted the 700 county workers.

Salaries for county employees were increased generally two years ago, and employees are pushing for a 5 per cent increase in the next budget, which would cost about $225,000.

Some employees have not been happy with the proposed 5 per cent increase, but would rather see a flat increase of $25 a month for each employee. This change, they argue, would help the little guy, who needs the money most.

The total effect would be less than 5 per cent, except that special extra increases would almost have to be allowed for some higher paid workers. Supervisor George H. Ludy has been quietly pushing the flat increase plan.

On the other side, there is going to be a strong attempt, centered in the county administrator's office, to hold back on an increase on salaries for clerical workers, who make up about one-third of the county work force.

The argument here is that these employees are receiving more in county jobs than they would in private industry, unlike many "more valuable" workers such as engineers or computer programmers.

The fight over salaries may be the hottest part of the budget sessions by the board of supervisors this spring and summer.

One other impact on the county budget as a whole will be felt as the county supports for the full year the controversial retirement system, approved, 3-2, by the supervisors last fall. This year the change was in effect only nine months.

Aside from the welfare budget, several other departments are certain to ask for major increases. It will probably be in these departmental budgets that cutting will be done.

County Administrator Alan Bruce and Asst. Administrator John F. Barrows have been discussing with department heads the programs planned for next year, without specifically talking figures. Discussions with figures on paper will start later this month.

Several departments have indicated desires for major changes, even though specific costs are unknown. Increases will be asked in the medical, planning, health, sheriff's, and building inspection departments, and in the parks and recreation division of the planning department (which may become a separate department).

Also due for a good hunk of money will be the mental health budget, a new program. The probation department will open the new residential treatment center for juveniles soon, and this operation will have to be funded. Probation Officer Walter H. Busher hopes most of this cost will come from state mental health funds.

A question mark is the office of the county clerk. Clerk George H. Gnoss explained that the budget of several departments housed at the courthouse depend on the number of superior court judges. Assemblyman William T. Bagley has introduced a bill to give the county its fourth judge.

If the legislature and governor approve, the county would need increased staff in the clerk's office and in the offices of the municipal court. The district attorney might also need more men.

The medical department budget is similar to that of the welfare department, in that the supervisors have relatively little control over it. Dr. Michael Scholl, medical director, says he expects a 15 per cent increase in cases, requiring a similar budget increase.

The planning department has already asked that the staff be increased from 14 to 22 persons. Planning Director B. D. Dobbs has said he has high hopes of getting much of what he wants, although he does not know where to put the new people.

The health department will ask for more clerks and for more room. Any increase in this department's size, according to Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, will mean use of rented quarters for part of the staff, probably the nursing staff.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos will ask for four more deputies, but will use them all in Tiburon if that area becomes a city and contracts for a single year. He also will ask for typists to relieve deputies and inspectors from typing their own reports so they can spend more time on patrol.

The building inspection department, a part of the public works department, has been earning money for the county, according to the auditor-controller. Chief Building Inspector Hans J. Berge says the department is understaffed and that is why building inspection fees have far exceeded costs.

Parks and recreation will seek funds for a fulltime ranger who can also supervise maintenance work on parks. Funds will be requested also for first phase work on Paradise Beach Park and, possibly, for Stafford Lake near Novato.

This department has also been a catchall for other budget items, such as aid to the San Rafael senior citizen program. If the supervisors agree to the request for $19,700 for the Marin City "total education" program, the funds for this would probably go into the parks and recreation budget.

One large item to stay about the same will be roads, aided largely by money collected by the state in sales taxes, gasoline taxes, and taxes on automobiles. Little local tax money beyond that needed to match state funds has been put into this in the past.

Public Works Director Donald R. Frost says he will not ask for a major increase this year either. He added he does not think he could get it anyway.

He said he would, however, ask for more men for building maintenance, especially at the Civic Center, where one-year warranties on a building full of new equipment have been running out.

Bolinas Approves 6 Fire Hydrants

Bolinas Fire Protection District commissioners Monday night authorized purchase of six fire hydrants for about $960 to be installed on the new water line being put in by the Bolinas Beach Public Utility District.

They also decided to move the fire telephone from in front of the Bolinas Garage to the front of the firehouse and install a large, louder bell at the firehouse.

The commission decided to work on the county fire ordinance to see if the county counsel might make changes in it to give firemen authority to enforce the ordinance.

It took 16½ hours to transmit a 99-word message from Queen Victoria to President Buchanan in 1858 across the first trans-Atlantic cable.

6 Rifles, Recorder Stolen In San Rafael

Burglary of the home of Charles Paganini, 600 Point San Pedro Road, San Rafael, which netted the thief six rifles, a tape recorder and a record player, was reported to the Marin County sheriff's office Monday.

Mrs. F. G. Miller of San Mateo, who was baby-sitting at the home, told officers entry was made by breaking a patio door pane Sunday night. No value estimate was given.

Petaluman Fined For Driving Offense

Peter Mario Poletti, 60, Petaluma, was fined $166 Monday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested by San Rafael police last Wednesday.

Poletti was also placed on one-year probation.

Employee Faces Gold Theft Charge

Donna Deane Hedge, 24-year-old San Rafael electronics employee charged with grand theft of about $500 worth of pure gold balls, was free today from Marin County jail on $262.50 bail.

Hearing of plea is scheduled March 23.

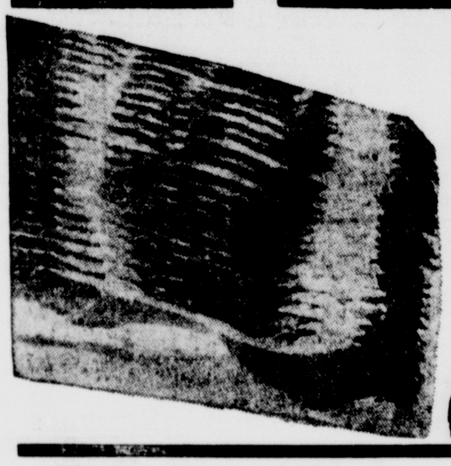

Miss Hedge is accused of taking the gold-contact points used in the manufacture of diodes—from Fairchild Semiconductor, a division of Fairchild Camera and Instrument Corp. at 4300 Redwood Highway, during six months work there.

She resides at 826 Fifth Avenue.

Seven At Catholic High In County Science Fair

Four girls and three boys from Marin Catholic High School have won prizes in the school's science fair, making them eligible to compete in the county science fair Friday and Saturday at San Rafael High School.

While the boys, Peter Del Tredici, Rod Ponath and David Zerca swept the physical science awards — with Del Tredici winning the grand prize—girls took first and second place in biological science and won a special group award in the field of nutritional supplements.

Catherine Graves took the first prize in biology with a solution to the question, "Can goldfish be frozen and survive?" Second prize went to Ellen Bundchu, while Colleen O'Connor and Mary Okey won the special award.

Two other boys, Ray Blanche and Michael Lasseter, were given honorable mention in the nutrition category.

Tomales Meet Set

Trustees of Tomales High School District Monday night set a special meeting for 7 p.m., next Monday at the high school to start proceedings to sell $175,000 in school bonds which were approved by voters on Jan. 14.

Highest island peak in Washington State is Mount Constitution on Orcas Island, the largest of the San Juan group.

Vote Machines Pool Suggested

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislation permitting cities, counties or other political subdivisions to pool their resources to buy vote-counting machines was proposed yesterday by Assemblyman Tom Bane (D-North Hollywood).

"The vote tabulating machines which have been developed in recent years are just too expensive to be owned or leased by many of our counties or cities," said Bane.

His bill would allow joint purchase or leasing of the equipment, which would be placed in a central location for use on election night.

Redlands, in San Bernardino County, is the largest orange center in the world.

Mill Valley Library Bonds Are Backed

Mill Valley Parks and Recreation commissioners Monday night adopted a resolution strongly urging a "yes" vote on Mill Valley library bonds, providing six parking spaces for staff and business use only be provided and that the park department be reimbursed for use of the Old Mill Park property.

It was agreed that City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer should plan the commission's budget.

Commissioners agreed that $10,000 out of the commission's surplus funds of $12,000 be loaned to the community and youth center, to be reimbursed through the current $25,000 fund drive.

They also recommended that $3,000 to $4,000 be allocated to permit the landscape architect firm of Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck to draw a master plan for Old Mill Park. This would mean that the playground area of the park could be immediately revamped.

The commission announced it is looking for architects interested in working on the design of the community and youth center, and asked that they advise the commission by March 23.

Mrs. Alan Kappelman of 168 Summit Avenue was appointed to the commission's tree subcommittee, replacing the late Herman Hein. Mrs. Kappelman is civic and conservation chairman of the Outdoor Art Club.

2 Cellmates Found Guilty In Prison Fight

A San Quentin Prison disciplinary committee yesterday found two cellmates guilty of charges growing out of a fight Saturday in the prison yard, and at least one will be referred to the district attorney's office for prosecution.

Francis Duckey, 27, was found guilty of possessing a weapon, and thus is subject to trial for a felony.

The other inmate, Donald Emery, 23, was found guilty of assaulting an officer who was trying to search Duckey to find the sharpened steel ruler he was carrying at the time.

Both men were sentenced to 29 days in isolation, and prison officials will recommend that the California Adult Authority revoke Emery's parole date. He would have been eligible for a parole hearing May 2.

Robert Loriano, associate warden, indicated the committee had not yet decided whether Emery's case also should be referred to the district attorney.

Fusselman Asks All Pay Hikes Be At The Same Time

County Supervisor William D. Fusselman yesterday asked for a study by the personnel director so all salary increases for county employees could be granted at the same time, once a year.

County employee pay increases, in general, are now based on the date on which they were hired.

Personnel director Robert D. Elliott defended the present system.

Fusselman said there would be a problem of increases for persons hired late in the year if there were a single increase date, but declared he was tired of seeing individual increases come before the board every week.

Supervisor George H. Ludy said he felt the changeover would be very difficult now.

Development Of Angel Is. State Park Disappointing

"Acquisition of Hospital Cove of Angel Island as a state park marks the beginning of a project to provide a wide variety of outdoor recreation in the front door of one of the largest metropolitan areas in the United States. The area is accessible by water only, but will be popular with thousands of owners of small recreational craft as well as excursion boats."

Thus spake the State Division of Beaches and Parks 10 years ago today on the occasion of the acquisition of the first Angel Island state park property from the federal government.

"Overnight dormitory facilities for youth groups and the public can probably be made of some of the barracks buildings.

". . . A marine life display, if established, would serve as an attraction for those interested in the unique acquatic life of San Francisco Bay.

"Picnic facilities and eating concessions would have to be developed to take care of the people who come to the island to spend a day."

That's what the State Division of Beaches and Parks said 10 years ago today.

We think it would be correct to say that the development of Angel Island as a state park has been disappointing.

The anticipated "thousands" could have been counted most of the time in the past decade in hundreds.

No overnight facilities have ever been provided. Nor are they any longer mentioned in statements about planned future development of the island as a park.

"Marine life display?"

We suspect that if you asked any park attendant about a marine life display he would tell you he never heard of any such thing in connection with Angel Island.

Same goes for "eating concessions."

The state has installed some nice picnic facilities, and that's about it.

Actually, it's mainly a rich man's park. You just about need your own yacht to enjoy visiting Angel Island. Public transportation, when it operates, is expensive, especially if you have very many children to buy tickets for.

And when you get there, it's hardly worth the price; there is little to see or do. Any thought of hiking about the island to "see the sights" is quickly extinguished by "public not allowed beyond this point" signs.

A decade ago and more, we supported those working to save Angel Island as a state park.

We have supported subsequent moves to get the whole of the island for state park purposes.

We really would not want it to be anything else but a public-owned recreation area.

It's public owned now, all right.

But is it a public recreation area?

Not in the sense that very many of the public can use and enjoy it easily or conveniently.

Thus far it is a disappointment.

It still has a great potential. But the potential is almost totally going to waste.

March—The Boisterous Month

March gets its name from Mars, the boisterous Roman god of war. It is an appropriate name for the month here in Marin because we almost always have several gusty storms, interspersed with some beautiful days.

The Roman gods were a lusty, robust crew; so is our month of March. Many aspects of fertility are evident. The birds are nesting. Flowers are blooming on every side.

While we don't think kindly of war these days, Mars was a lively, human sort of god. He wasn't an entirely good fellow, but he had some redeeming virtues.

This month we unthinkingly pay tribute to the pagan heritage which underlies our Christmas one. We doff our hat to you, Mr. Mars.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Bill To Allow Tax Hikes Without Vote Would Be A Blank Check

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The proposal of Assemblyman Charles B. Garrigus, (D-Fresno) to withdraw the state limitation on school taxes again points up the need for drastic reform in the financing of education in California, from the ground up.

Garrigus, who has been one of the leaders in the assembly in the education field, and is chairman of its education committee, also proposes to allow school boards to raise taxes without holding an election.

There are those who believe the Fresno assemblyman may have his tongue in his cheek in making such a proposal. Garrigus is a poet, and as such may be disposed to day-dreams.

HIS PROPOSAL indeed would offer school boards nothing but a blank check, signed, sealed and delivered by the state of California, on the pocket-books of California's taxpayers.

Under present law, before the school board can allow an excess of taxes over the legal limit, it must call a special election to have the voters of the school district approve the increase.

This is the way things have always been done in California. The people of the state are the final arbiters of questions which involve decisions which can cost the taxpayers money.

THERE APPEARS to be no logical reason to change this procedure at the present time. The Garrigus bill would do nothing more than open the doors to a Utopia for school administrators who could, almost at will, dictate how much the taxpayer would pay. And there are a lot of administrators who would not hesitate to take advantage of this blank check procedure.

The Garrigus bill, therefore, merely shows the necessity for a change of drastic proportions in the muddled methods now in vogue for financing the state's schools.

Proposals of varying natures have been made to the legislature, but the outstanding one of all is the suggestion made in the measure by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh, speaker of the assembly, to contain school districts in cities and counties, reducing the number of districts in the state from more than 1,500 to approximately 200.

UNRUH DOES not propose to take away the control of the people in matters such as school taxation. He proposes, rather, to eliminate a lot of overhead costs, which in terms of modern business, are wholly unnecessary.

No proposal, in fact, is going to reduce the amount of taxes the people pay for operation of the schools. This is impossible under any system, due to the continuing increase in the number of students in the state's schools. But, reform in the reduction of school districts could prevent the bill from going much higher in future years.

Stupid To Risk Lives Of Others

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am writing to you because I am very mad . . . mad because some fool sent in a false alarm at my neighbor's home. Isn't there something that can be done about the stupid people who risk the lives of others? I was reading a book when I saw red lights flashing madly all over and I heard sirens. It was the Kentfield fire department answering a false alarm. These men are volunteers. Some come speeding at break-neck speeds for nothing. Who ever did it is a sick person and a fool. These kind of "people" (I use the term very loosely) belong in an institution.

Thanks very much, I feel better now.

Harsh Treatment For Supervisors

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The recent action taken by the Marin County Commissioner's (supervisors) in denying the request for the additional sum of $7,323 dollars for the expenses of the Marin County bedside nursing program, constitutes a sin, a crime, a shame, before man and God. The explanations of the commissioners for the denial are outrageous, inhuman and without reason, logic, need, purpose, rhyme, rhythm, decency, honor, manliness or democratic principles.

As the only cure for the deniers I suggest breaking both legs, of each, and leaving these exponents of the all mighty dollar laying in the wildernies with an armed guard to protect them from receiving any food, water, warmth, baths, laundry, or care whatsoever from any human source except by their own power . . . .

. . . And the persons I do know who work as social workers, even though they receive less for an honest month of honest work than the well-paid and lazy bankers, lawyers and politicans, are not the type of people whom I would investigate if I were looking for thieves.

The I. J. has a bouquet coming for pring the article.

The 1960 population of Marin County is reported as 146, 820 persons. Leaving 360 as not being able to donate, this would be exactly five cents apiece for each man, woman and child. Realizing that doctors, lawyers, bankers, paid politicans are interested in dollars and not humans I send one dollar, five cents apiece for myself and wife and ninety cents for eighteen doctors, lawyers or politicans. I ask the I. J. to please start a fund to raise the money for the amount the county commissioners cannot afford.

$300,000 Loan For Mill Valley Harbor

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As one who played a significant part in obtaining the $300,000 loan from the State of California Small Craft Harbor Commission and attended their meetings in San Diego, Redondo Beach, Sacramento, Berkeley and elsewhere, thank you for your splendid editorial of Mar. 4, "Visionary Dream About to Come True at Mill Valley."

Incidentally, back in Aug., 1961, I was credited by former Mayor Huber "for an excellent job in pursuit of the $300,000 loan."

Tighter Discipline Not Proper For Tam

Editor, Independent-Journal:

There has been considerable public discussion of the discipline problem and proposed solution at Tamalpais High School. There appears to be general acceptance on the part of the community and even the student body that a more stringent behavior code is the solution. I would like to indicate that some students disagree with the proposed changes.

The proposed changes constitute a qualitative change of the behavior code at Tam. Closed campus, increased discipline, perhaps a split lunch would take too much from the campus. It seems that the forces which represent this community think that a quantitative change in the actions of some of the students justifies this qualitative change in the administration of the school. I cannot but disagree.

Recently a N.Y. town established a curfew law. In striking it down, the State supreme court stated there was not sufficient justification for the curtailment of personal liberties. I think the situations are analogous. Just as the court directed that town to find other methods to solve its problems, I think that some other solution would be more desirable at Tam.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

YEARS AGO THERE was an energetic American promoter in Paris named Jefferson Davis Dickson. One time he stubbed his toes—and Bankroll—on a big jungle show that featured 20 "ferocious, man-eating lions." Thousands of Parisian would-be Neros turned up for the excitement, but some underling unfortunately gave the lions a full-sized meal just before show-time, and as the lions entered the arena, they promptly lay down and fell asleep. The crowd demanded its money back, and Promoter Dickson fled the town for a while.

"MEN ARE LIKE rivers," noted Russian author Leo Tolstoy in "Resurrection." "The water is alike in all of them, but every river is narrow in some places and wide in others; here swift and there sluggish, here clear and there turbid; cold in winter and warm in summer. The same may be said of men. Every man bears within himself the germs of every human quality, displaying all in turn, and a man can often seem unlike himself — yet still remains the same man."

"WHERE DO YOU think you're going?" a domineering wife demanded of her timid husband, who was headed for a bank to try to renew a long-standing loan. The husband sighed heavily and explained, "I have a rendezvous with debt."

Successful Japan Farmers Could Give Lessons To Moscow, Peking

TOKYO—You only have to take one look at what the efficient, independent Japanese farmers are doing to expand the food resources of these overpopulated islands to wonder why Nikita Khrushchev and Chou En-lai don't send their Communist experts to Japan to see how it's done.

The Japanese could teach them a lot — if the Communists would be willing to listen.

Fewer Japanese farmers are growing more, and more varied, food all the time. They are increasing productivity per acre. Japanese farm income, though lagging behind industrial income, is steadily going up.

AT A TIME when the Communist system of collective agriculture has brought the Chinese diet to a dangercusly low level and when the Soviets are frantically turning to the West for wheat, Japanese individualism on the farm is feeding 95 million Japanese with breathtaking progress.

When you consider the shortage of tillable land on these four small islands in terms of a population which will reach 100 million soon, it is evident that the food requirements of Japan are far more difficult to meet than the food requirements of either Red China or the Soviet Union.

Under Communist collectivism neither Red China nor the Soviet Union is meeting its food needs.

There is no government operation or control of Japanese agriculture.

JAPANESE farmers produce for private profit at prices determined by an overwhelmingly free market.

Over-all Japanese farm production is up nearly 40 per cent over 10 years ago. Milk production has grown more than 400 per cent, the supply of eggs nearly 300 per cent. Japanese beef has become a widespread staple in the nation's diet.

Average income per farm household has risen from $740 to $1,900 per year in the past 10 years.

When the Japanese farmer cannot do everything for himself by himself, he turns to his farm cooperative, which is democratically run by the farmers for the farmers. There are 11,000 such cooperatives. They are the principal instrument for the purchase, transportation and sale of the farmers' produce.

THE LIFE OF the Japanese farm families is becoming less burdensome. TV antennas sprout across the countryside. At least half the farm population now has television. While better machinery is the farmer's first objective, he is modernizing his kitchen and his home.

Japan has its farm problems, of course. Farm youth is being lured to the cities for more attractive employment. The farm labor force is declining and this makes it imperative to raise labor productivity. Farm units are too small, an average of two and a half acres.

But 90 per cent of all Japanese farms are owned by the individual farmers and they are working them prodigiously.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Johnson Foes Mass To Defeat Cloture

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Senate opponents of President Lyndon B. Johnson's civil rights program are within three votes of being able to defeat any administration move to limit debate in the Senate on this controversial measure.

Their confidential poll, taken on the eve of the crucial debate, shows that a coalition of 31 Southern Democrats and Republican senators is ready to block all attempts by the Senate leaders to bring the legislation to a vote by imposing cloture.

Under Senate rules, 67 members or two-thirds of those present and voting must approve cloture in order to cut off debate or end a filibuster.

The poll lists 54 Democratic and Republican senators as prepared to limit the civil rights debate by voting cloture. Fifteen senators are still undecided on how they will cast their vote if and when the showdown comes.

OF THESE "swing" senators, eight are reported "leaning" toward cloture while seven are "inclined" against approving any cut-off of debate on civil rights.

According to these Senate opponents, the unpublished poll gives Sen. Richard Russell (D-Ga.), their titular leader, a strong bargaining weapon to induce President Johnson, his close friend, to "water down" the House-passed civil rights bill.

To win over the "clinching" three votes needed to block a debate limitation, the Southern Democratic-Republican coalition is working closely with a newly-formed organization known as "Fundamental American Freedoms, Inc.," which is launching a nation-wide campaign to rally opposition to the Johnson program.

THIS ORGANIZATION, with national headquarters in Washington, hopes to stir up strong grass-roots opposition to the legislation in Northern as well as Southern states by placing large advertisements in approximately 200 newspapers.

The ads will charge that the civil rights bill now before the Senate is "not a moderate bill," warning that, "It constitutes the greatest grab for executive power conceived in the 20th century."

The Southern senators hope to attract additional support among conservative Republicans by tossing an explosive new element into the coming civil rights debate.

In a series of speeches on the Senate floor, they will charge that the same administration attorneys who drafted the civil rights program are engineering White House backing for an international court to enforce "civil rights" as stipulated under a treaty being prepared at the United Nations.

SEN. WAYNE MORSE has bluntly told the Johnson administration "to get out of South Vietnam"—or face the dire likelihood of nuclear war there and crushing political defeat at home.

The militant Oregonian hurled this bombshell at a private conference between Secretary Dean Rusk and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, of which Morse is a ranking member. The State Department head talked lengthily, but gave no hint of administration plans and policies regarding South Vietnam.

MARIN COUNTY was never like this.

What I mean is that I have just emerged from under Agnes' bunk, where I have been busy digging out books, jelly beans and other miscellaneous property deposited there by a particularly heavy ship's roll at 8:46 a.m.

Anything resembling our current havoc must have happened in Marin County back in 1906.

But before I left the I-J, our boss, normally a trustworthy informant, said, "You will find Marin County everywhere you go."

So far it's yes and no.

HARDLY DID we board the President Tyler in San Francisco than I learned that a sound I-J subscriber, William E. Penick of Ross, was chief mate.

The next ship's officer I met with a Marin base was Clyde Cain of Novato, and he had the special distinction of owning the very make and model of car we are to acquire in Stuttgart. That made the voyage a success from its outset.

What Japan had in common with Marin County was, I gathered from air mail in Yokohama, an unpleasant batch of winter weather. So during our three weeks of revisiting Dai Nippon we might as well have stayed at home with a wood fire and the brand of gin we prefer.

MY OLD EMPLOYER, the Japan Times, is still going strong. In 1923 it cost 10 sen per copy, equivalent to five American cents. Now it costs 20 yen, a rise of what I'll think is 10,000 per cent until Mike Mitchell figures it differently.

Anyhow the rise looks big, but what is 20 yen now worth in U. S. currency? Just 5.6 cents. In other words, by getting rid of me and letting 40 years pass, the Japan Times has profited only 3/5 of one cent.

Let that be a warning to the I-J! Losing Gould is not enough.

WHETHER THIS ship reaches Hongkong is at the moment problematical, with some aboard hoping for the worst. I personally fear we may go ashore on Formosa, so I am eating heavily, for the vicinity of Chiang Kai-shek and Co. is seldom a land of plenty and one should be well fortified.

Agnes and I are having a wonderful time. But privately we agree that if ever we seen Marin County again it may take some mighty clever maneuvering to pry us loose.

Marin Student Wins Fellowship

A San Rafael youth is one of four seniors at the University of California's Riverside campus to receive a valuable fellowship for graduate study from the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Foundation.

Peter F. Stokely, a chemistry major, will be granted full tuition and fees for the first year at a graduate school of his choice, plus $1,800 and allowances, according to a university news release.

A total of 1,507 students in the United States and Canada were picked from 11,000 college seniors to receive the fellowships.

$50 Stolen From Bedroom Dresser

Theft of about $50 from an envelope on a bedroom dresser in home of Barbara Renfort, 330 Cardinal Court, Mill Valley, was reported by Marin County sheriff's office yesterday.

Deputies said the money was taken during the past few weeks, but the loss was discovered yesterday. No sign of forced entry was evident.

ART BUCHWALD

A Plane Even More Radical Than A-11 Disclosed—No Jets On It

WASHINGTON — When President Lyndon B. Johnson revealed at his press conference that the United States had developed a 2,000-mile-an-hour fighter-interceptor plane, the A-11, superior to any aircraft in the world today, he made headlines all over the world. This top-secret story had been kept under wraps for five years and it is believed that the only reason the president finally released the details to the press is that he didn't have any other news to give them that day.

But the plane the president failed to mention, which is far superior to the A-11, and is more radical than anything ever developed for the Air Force, is the PJ-306. Despite pleas from the Defense Department to keep the PJ-306 story a secret, we have decided to reveal the facts about it, as we believe that if the president can blow the story on a secret plane so can we.

WE FIRST heard about the PJ-306 when we visited Evreux Air Force Base in France during the spring of 1960. An officer who had too much to drink told us that the Air Force was working on a plane that could fly so slow that nothing could hit it. Its maximum speed was 100 miles an hour with a good tail wind, or seven times less than the speed of sound.

He told us that the Air Force had been concerned for a long time over the Soviet development of supersonic aircraft. The Air Force, to keep up, demanded faster planes for itself until both sides had developed planes so fast that they couldn't see each other. At this stage the Joint Chiefs of Staff decided they needed a new plane which would catch the Soviets completely off guard. They needed a plane so slow that no fast Soviet fighter could shoot it down.

Everyone said it was impossible to develop such a fighter, and all the major airplane manufacturers were reluctant to work on it. So the Air Force turned the contract over to the Spad Aircraft Co.

THE SPAD designers and engineers worked on it for two years before coming up with the solution. They developed a bi-wing plane with one wing over the cockpit and one below it.

But then they ran into engine trouble. Every jet engine they put on the plane made it fall apart. When all looked lost, someone developed a radically new kind of engine, which they called a propeller engine. Although it sounds like science-fiction, this engine has a large wooden stick on the nose, and when the engine is started up, the wooden stick turns and pulls air through the plane to give it buoyancy.

Air Force generals didn't believe it was possible, but after the first trials at a secret air base they saw the plane take off and fly to an altitude of 500 feet in 20 minutes.

THEY WERE so impressed that they immediately ordered 500 of them and gave Spad the green light to go ahead.

Unfortunately, there were further delays. In order to have any value the plane had to be armed. Spad placed a 50-caliber machine gun in the cockpit. But every time the pilot fired the gun he shot off his own propeller.

Finally the Massachusetts Institute of Technology was given the problem. They developed a method of synchronizing the machine gun with the turn of the prop.

The plane was ready to go into production.

THE NEW plane has many innovations. The cockpit is open, so the pilot may jump out of his plane if hit. The landing gear is stationary, which gives the PJ-306 added slowness. So far nothing in the Air Force has been able to catch it, and in practice dogfights the PJ-306 has shot down 367 jet fighters.

Even Barry Goldwater has been reluctant to talk about this one.

Hamilton Projects Cut $62,000

The House Armed Services Committee in Washington yesterday cut $62,000 from the military construction authorization bill for projects at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The Hamilton trim, from $174,000 to $112,000, was part of a $600,000 cut in allocations for Air Force establishments in California from those recommended by the Defense Department on Jan. 24.

The Navy, on the other hand, gained $120,000 above what the Defense Department had recommended, while Army allocations were not changed.

Wives Learning About Politics

Wives of doctors, dentists and lawyers are being given the chance to learn about politics, thanks to an eight-week "action course in practical politics" sponsored by the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce and the Marin Medical Society's women's auxiliary.

The course, now in its fifth week, is being conducted in the east wing of Ross General Hospital by Mrs. Jack Nixon.

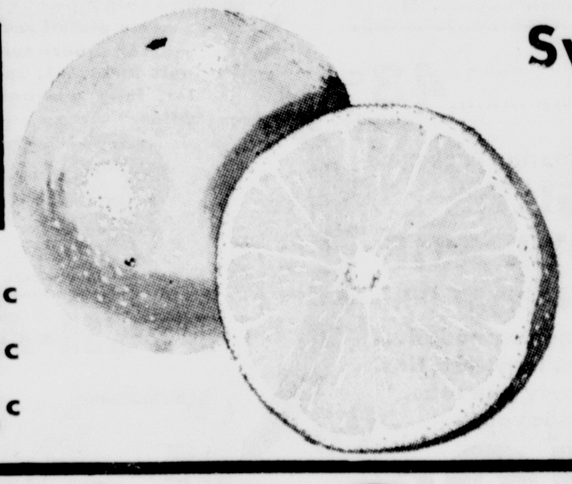

Participants will make a written report in their seventh meeting, then hear from representatives of both major political parties in their final session, scheduled for April 16.

Garety On Panel

Marin County Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety will participate in a panel discussion of law school curricula at the annual meeting of the Conference of Western Law Schools April 3-4 at the University of San Francisco School of Law.

Free Tuberculin Tests Are Still Available

Only three days remain for parents to request free tuberculin tests for students in Drake, Redwood and Tamalpais High Schools, the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. announced today. For participation in the Tuesday test project, signed request cards must be at the schools by 3 p.m. Monday, Tamalpais High School District officials cautioned.

The TB Association, high school district, and Marin County Health Department are co-sponsoring the tuberculin skin-testing for all students in the three Tam district high schools.

The Tuesday testing will culminate more than six months' preparation and will be the most extensive group tuberculin testing ever undertaken in Marin. Twenty-one volunteer physicians, 15 nurses and some 50 Parent-Teacher Assn. members will participate.

Parents who have misplaced the request card received from their school's principal may telephone the school nurse for a duplicate, said Supt. Chester G. Carlisle.

Chairmen of P-TA telephone committees reminding parents of the tests are Mrs. Charles Kelly, district; Mrs. Carroll Russell, Drake; Mrs. Samuel Mercer, Redwood, and Mrs. B. P. Lelich, Tam.

Physicians who will test at Drake are: Edward McCrum, John Bettinger, David Costanza, Paul Davidson, Filmore Rodich, William Lifson, David McCullough and Joseph Alderson. Assisting registered nurses will be Betty Andrews, Barbara Fenston, Joey Nannizzi, Charles Quinn, and Alice Politi.

Redwood students will be tested by Doctors William Magladry, James Goebel, Robert Clarke, Lorraine McBain, Richard Hahn, Marge McGee and Royce Truax. Nurses will be Anne Brown, Dorothy Edwards, Gertrude MacFarlane, Pat Palm, Joyce Wells, Thomas Sather and Mary Robinson.

In charge of the Tam testing will be Doctors Mary Jo Tonelli, T. G. Brown, Carl Schlichtman, Marilyn Hicks, Michael Scholl and Leon Smith. Their assistants will be Marion Ibach, Lucy Van Hise, Helen Gubka and Eleanor Mosher.

Humans Some Day Might Live To Be 250 Years Old

By DELOS SMITH

NEW YORK UPI—In its newer chemical and mathematical ramifications the molecular cross-linkage theory of aging offers the potential of 250 years and perhaps more as a normal life span for human beings.

Dr. Johan Bjorksten, distinguished industrial chemist and author of the theory, suggests this gives it much more promise for human longevity than current and extensive scientific efforts to wipe out all disease.

Without enough basic understanding of the aging process to control aging in some measure, the net gain of all those efforts in longer human life would be unimportant.

"The person who would be saved from dying of cancer or coronary disease at the age of 90 would have been so weakened at the age of 105 that any trivial cause would terminate his life," he continued.

"Thus the most that could be gained if all other medical projects (in addition to the one seeking an understanding of the aging process) were 100 per cent successful would be about 15 years of increasingly precarious existence.

Bjorksten doesn't expect the aging process to come under scientific control any time soon, of course. His purpose was to stimulate the scientific world with the attractions of the molecular cross-linkage theory now that it has been around long enough to accumulate a lot of supporting evidence.

It deals with fundamental activities of body chemistry at the level of molecules where the innumerable chemical parts intermesh and become a working whole. The theory holds that more and more molecules become cross-linked as life proceeds and this is the mechanism of the aging process.

Cross-linkage can be demonstrated readily enough in the test tube, with certain molecules. Their components no longer dissolve and reform. The result is that molecular activity is slowed or stopped. In a chemical complex as massive and involved as a human body, this slowing and stopping would have to go on a very long time — say the present life span of people—before it would bring the complex to a complete halt.

"The only way in which really dramatic control of aging can be achieved is to find means to break down the cross-linked insoluble molecules in the cells," Bjorksten said in the technical journal, Gerontologia.

"It does not matter whether these are broken up at the cross-linkages or anywhere else in the molecules — the principle is to reduce them to excretable components. The normal synthetic reactions in the cells will then fill the space that was blocked with normal molecules.

"Regardless of whether or not this theory in the final analysis will prove complete and correct in all respects, it gives us reason to believe that aging can be controlled, for it is clearly not beyond the reach of science to find means for breaking down even heavily cross-linked proteins and nucleic acids."

Bjorksten heads the Bjorksten Research Foundation of Madison, Wis.

College Students Budget $9,300

The executive council of the Associated Students of the College of Marin yesterday approved a $9,300 budget for the spring semester.

Most of the money is marked for athletics, the Tower Times, Inter Club Council and rallies and assemblies.

A meeting scheduled by the executive council to discuss card playing on the college campus was cancelled Monday because of a basketball game. The meeting was reset for next Monday noon in Room 1 of Olney Hall.

Twenty-six students from the college will attend a conference on student government Saturday at Contra Costa Junior College.

A. Crawford Greene Treated At Hospital

Ross attorney A. Crawford Greene is being treated at Marin General Hospital for a respiratory infection.

Greene, who is listed as being in good condition, was admitted to the hospital Sunday.

$1,000 Tools Stolen From Van Trailer

Burglars entered a van trailer of Howard C. Bond, contractor of Santa Rosa, on a site two miles east of Olema and stole about $1,000 worth of tools, Marin County sheriff's officers reported Monday.

Entry was gained by breaking a lock, according to Bond. He said three saws, a drill, a nail-driving machine, and a cutting torch were in the loot. The break-in took place during the weekend, he said.

Ninety per cent of Honduras' population is mestizos, of mixed Spanish and Indian blood.

Study Asked In Cost To Replace Braceros

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — A study into possible social welfare costs to California counties as the result of importing domestic farm workers and their families into California to replace Mexican braceros has been called for in an assembly resolution by Assemblyman Burt H. Henson (D-Ventura).

The measure, HR55, noted that the federal law providing for the bracero program would end on Dec. 31 and it probably would be necessary to do recruit domestic labor.

"It appears that the harvesting of seasonal agricultural crops solely by domestic farm labor will result in a greater number of migrant farm labor families who will experience periods of unemployment by reason of the nature of seasonal crop harvesting, and whose social welfare needs will become a matter of concern for state and local government," the resolution said.

"It appears that existing social welfare programs in California may be inadequate because of the social welfare problems likely to result from a greater number of migrant farm labor families," it said.

The resolution calls for a study on the report by the beginning of the 1965 legislative session.

Henson said Ventura county agriculture, with its intensive farming and production of vegetable crops, has been dependent on the bracero program for supplemental labor. Even though some crops are raised at various times of the year, there still would be a number of slack periods in harvest when farm workers and their families very likely would become welfare cases, Henson said.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has scheduled a meeting among labor leaders and agricultural interests on March 13 to consider some of the problems involved in the elimination of the bracero program.

ABAG Is Topic Of KTIM Panel

The Assn. of Bay Area Governments will be the topic of the radio KTIM "Marin Sounding Board" from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Speakers will be Mayor John F. McInnis of San Rafael, president of ABAG; County Supervisor Kent D. Pursel of Alameda County, ABAG president-elect, and L. H. McVicar, recreation director of the City of Fremont and chairman of an advisory group to ABAG's recreation committee. Kitty Oppenheimer will moderate.

Questions telephoned by listeners will be directed to the speakers, and the program will be rebroadcast from a recording Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Christmas Seal Designs Asked

Marin artists, both professional and amateur, are urged by the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. to start thinking of designs for the 1965 Christmas Seal. Originator of the selected design will receive $1,000 from the national TB association. The 1964 seal is already in production.

Deadline for entries locally is Sept. 1. Final selection will be made in New York in October.

Folders containing mechanical specifications and technical suggestions are available from the Marin TB Assn., 1010 Grand Avenue, San Rafael.

'Squared Drawing' Takes A Prize

Karla Moss of Stinson Beach is winner of a $75 prize for her "squared drawing" entry in an exhibition on display at the San Francisco Art Institute, 800 Chestnut Street.

Fifteen artists have their "squared drawings"—drawings in a square space—on display in the juried exhibit. First prizes were awarded to Miss Moss and Jerrold Ballaine of Seattle.

100,000 Black Jews Seek To Settle In Israel

Tell Ambassador They Want To Avoid Ethiopia-Somalia War

By LEO HEIMAN
Worldwide Press Service

JERUSALEM—With increasing hostilities along the Somali-Ethiopian border, the Falashas — black Jews of Ethiopia — have sent a 10-man delegation, including four rabbis and six community leaders, to the Israeli Embassy in Addis-Ababa.

The delegation handed the Israeli ambassador a petition explaining that as citizens of Ethiopia, they were obligated to serve in the Imperial Army and fight Ethiopia's enemies. But since they regard themselves as Jews first and foremost, they said they did not wish to be implicated in the border dispute which threatens to develop into full-scale warfare between Christian Ethiopia and Moslem Somalia.

"Our place is in the Jewish State," the petition declared, asking the Israeli Government to set up a special emergency commission to handle the mass immigration of some 100,000 Falashas to Israel. The black Jews are the descendants of 10,000 Jewish soldiers who were hired as mercenaries by Queen Cleopatra to police her colonies along the Upper Nile.

The petitioners reminded the Israeli government that it had set up emergency immigration commissions in the past, citing Yemen, Iraq, Egypt, Morocco, Rumania, Libya, Poland and West Germany. Two such commissions are currently being organized to handle the "mass evacuation" to Israel of the Jewish communities in South Africa and Argentina.

But Israeli authorities have turned a deaf ear to the Falashas' requests. They have made clear that Israel is willing to send Hebrew-language teachers, youth instructors, medical assistance teams, religious missions and vocational-instruction experts to help the "primitive" Falashas. They are also willing to double the number of scholarships available to Falasha youths at Israeli schools.

But they do not consider the Falashas bona fide Jews eligible for automatic Israeli citizenship and immediate immigration (at the expense of Israel, which is also obliged to feed, house and integrate Jews) under Israel's "law of return."

This is resented by the Falasha leaders, some of whom accuse Israel of hypocrisy and racism. They declare that the Falashas are not as primitive as some Israelis make them appear. They point out that they have a network of schools, that many Falashas are serving as officers in the imperial army of Ethiopia, that others hold such important posts as regional tax collectors, administration officials and police commandants. At least two cabinet ministers in Emperor Haile Selassie's government are Falasha Jews.

They are certainly less primitive, Falasha leaders contend, than many Jews from Yemen and Kurdistan, from the caves of Tripolitania and the mountains of Atlas, whom Israel rushed to "evacuate" under the "law of return." They welcome the activities of Israeli teachers and doctors, and they are glad to send their children to study at Israeli institutions. But they note that this kind of aid is offered by Israel to any African country.

Falasha leaders say that the real reason why Israel has coldshouldered their pleas — while spending up to $25,000 for each European-Jewish family willing to migrate to the Jewish State—is that Israel fears the integration headaches which would result from a sudden influx of 100,000 black Jews from Ethiopia.

It's true that Israel already has racial problems and doesn't want to compound them. Over the past 16 years of existence as an independent state, Israel has been successful in many fields. But its policy for "integration of exiled communities" has been a failure.

Between the Jews of European descent and those of African and Asian origin, there is friction and mutual distrust. Ugly race riots erupt from time to time, and the gulf seems to be widening instead of narrowing.

Most of Israel's present colored Jews — who complain about social, economic and educational (not racial) discrimination — are not black. In fact, many are as white as the European Jews. The trouble is that they come from underdeveloped countries without the heritage of technological knowhow, the professional skills and educational background of most European Jews.

What would happen if 100,000 black Jews of Ethiopia were allowed to migrate here is anybody's guess. But conditions being what they are, they would probably have to live in settlements of their own.

There are such ghetto-like communities in Israel now (Karaites, Samaritans and Kurds), and this is not something Israel wants to see repeated. Moreover, it is expected that a religious crisis of major proportions would erupt since the two strongholds of ultra-orthodox Judaism — the Israeli Rabbinate and the Supreme Religious Council — do not regard the Falashas as bona fide Jews.

Historical research shows that after the Falasha regiments had accomplished their mission for Cleopatra, she was gone from the scene and her successors refused to honor her commitments. Not only would they not pay the mercenaries for their years of combat duty; they would not even let them pass through Egypt on their way back home to Israel.

When these Jewish soldiers mutinied, an expeditionary force was sent to wipe them out. After many battles, the Jewish survivors retreated up the Nile to carve out a small kingdom for themselves around Lake Tana and the Blue Nile headwaters.

Cut off from contact with home, and isolated by superior enemy forces, the mercenaries settled down and married girls of local Ethiopian tribes. They converted the women to Judaism and bred a new nation. In time, the Falashas united with Ethiopia's Christian tribes which claimed descent from King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba.

Relations between the Falashas and the Ethiopian-Christian tribes were always friendly. Having inherited military valor and warlike qualities from their soldier-of-fortune forefathers, the Falashas were always in great demand as fighters, and they made up much of Ethiopia's imperial guard, military police and frontier defense regiments.

PLANNERS ADOPT 'NEW LOOK' IDEAS

Engineer Coleman Gives San Rafael Some Suggestions For Streamlined Procedure

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

The San Rafael Planning Department was infused with the 'Dan Coleman new look' last night, and planning commissioners liked it.

Daniel P. Coleman, consulting engineer who took over the job of city planner temporarily while a new fulltime planner is being recruited, interspersed his recommendations on agenda items with a series of suggestions for improvement of planning procedures. Every one of them won unanimous commission approval.

Hereafter, on Coleman's recommendation:

1. All planned community maps will be submitted to the city engineer for his approval before going to the planning commission. "Most of the P-C plans we have received in the past week have been merely architectural conceptions and have not included engineering details that are needed," said Coleman, who started on his interim job a week ago.

2. A slope policy will be prepared by the planning staff to serve as a guide to density requirements of future hillside developments. Coleman said he will attempt to have recommendations for such a policy for the March 24 meeting.

3. It will be policy to require two additional off-street parking spaces, beyond the normal requirements, for each lot developed on a street which has inadequate width for curbside parking.

4. Planned community applications must be received by the planning department 30 days before they are to appear on the commission's agenda; all other applications must be received two weeks in advance. Coleman said the extra time will enable the staff to make more adequate recommendations, and may save time in the long run.

5. The subdivision committee (planner, commission chairman, and city engineer) will be combined with the architectural control committee (planner and two commissioners) to review all applications. The city manager and chief building inspector will be asked also to sit on the expanded committee. (The building inspector was added at suggestion of Commissioner Charles J. Hendrickson, the others being proposed by Coleman.)

Commissioner Carl J. Brown, enthusiastic over Coleman's proposals, suggested many of the minor matters might be decided by the staff without coming before the commission.

"I'd go for that if we were going to continue to have the planner we have tonight," said Commissioner Orlando Conti. "But frankly, with some of the $600 a month planners we have had, I just wouldn't want to trust them."

Planning Technician Makes Appearance

San Rafael's newest planning technician, Charles Linthicum, made his first appearance last night before the city's planning commission.

Linthicum went to work a week ago, being hired to fill a vacancy that had existed several months. He formerly worked for a Los Angeles civil engineer. He is unmarried.

Linthicum presented some of the agenda items to the commission, alternating with Daniel P. Coleman, the city's interim planner who also started on the job only a week ago, and Asst. Planner Joan Castrillon, who has worked under half a dozen city planners and seen at least that many technicians come and go.

General Plan Airing Slated Next Tuesday

First public airing of the new San Rafael General Plan will be at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday in the city council chamber.

Planning Commission Chairman Pat Hertzog announced last night the meeting will be a presentation of the plan by Daniel P. Coleman and William Spangle, who prepared it, for benefit of the planning commission.

It will be open for the public to listen, but only the planning commissioners will ask questions, he said. Public hearings on the plan will be held later.

Strep Infections Still Top List

Streptococcus infections remain at the top of the list of communicable diseases in Marin County, according to Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer.

There were 37 cases of strep infections among communicable diseases reported, 6 pertussis, two cases; gonorrhea, two cases; tuberculosis and infectious hepatitis, one each.

Novato Employees

Novato city employees will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the upstairs room of the Novato Community House to organize a city employees association.

Car Theft, Burglaries Jail 4 Boys

San Rafael police arrested four juveniles yesterday on charges of auto theft and burglary of eight catering trucks.

The boys, ranging in age from 14 to 16, were arrested by Sgt. Thomas Stephenson and sent to Juvenile Hall.

Two of the boys were apprehended at 1 a.m. yesterday on Bay View Street near a car stolen from Jeffrey Herrick of 412 D Street. The other two were arrested at 8 a.m. while walking along D Street.

Police said the boys took cigarettes and candy Sunday night by breaking into eight catering trucks parked at 375 Francisco Boulevard. Damage to the refrigerated trucks was estimated at $1,500.

Three of the boys are parolees from the California Youth Authority, police said.

Virology Lecture

Col. Albert Leibovitz, chief of immunology at the Sixth Army Laboratory, Fort Baker, will lecture about virology at a meeting of the San Francisco chapter of the California Assn. of Medical Laboratory Technologists at the laboratory March 24 at 8 p.m. The meeting is open to all medical technologists in the Bay Area.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, March 11, the 71st day of 1964 with 295 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The evening stars are Venus and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1888, a great blizzard began in New York City and snow fell for four straight days.

In 1930, William Howard Taft became the first president of the United States to be buried in the national cemetery at Arlington, Va.

In 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the hotly-debated lend-lease bill and immediately ordered goods sent to Britain and Greece.

In 1959, the Senate approved Hawaii as the 50th state.

A thought for the day — British statesman Sir Winston Churchill once said: "I cannot forecast to you the action of Russia. It is a riddle wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Lightface type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Learn To Pick Right Time To Cash Tricks At Bridge

Cash your defensive tricks quickly when declarer threatens to discard his losers on a long suit.

Don't be in a hurry to cash your tricks when there is no such threat.

Opening lead — ♠ 6

South's excellent shutout bid of four hearts worked like a charm. East-West could make 11 tricks at spades, but West was afraid to take the double out to four spades.

SIT TIGHT

West decided to sit tight and collect a small profit, but it didn't turn out that way..

West opened the six of spades, and East won with the king. You might stare at the dummy for hours without seeing any threat, but East thought he saw a reason for cashing the ace of spades. You need good eyes to see something that isn't there.

South ruffed the second spade and led a low diamond. West won with the queen of diamonds and led a trump, but it was too late.

DECLARER WINS

Declarer won and led another low diamond to force out the ace, and East could not return a second trump.

There was no way to stop South from ruffing a diamond in dummy. Declarer thus lost only two diamonds and one spade. In addition to stopping East-West from winning the game and rubber, South actually managed to make a game of his own.

Now let's go back to the first trick. Any reasonable East would see no threat at all in the dummy.

SAFELY RETURN

East can safely return a trump at the second trick since dummy's shortness in diamonds poses a threat of a different kind.

If declarer wins in dummy and returns a diamond, East must play low. Even if South puts up the king of diamonds, West can win the second diamond with the queen and can then return a second trump.

This defense will produce three diamond tricks and thus defeat the contract.

QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠ A K 9 2
♥ 6
♦ A 9 8 4
♣ A K 7 5

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one diamond.

With three 4-card suits, all biddable, start with the suit under the singleton. There are exceptions to this rule, but the rule is still helpful.

'Most Traveled Cat In Marin'

"Kitty," a five-year-old male shorthair domestic cat, probably could claim the title of the "Most Traveled Cat in Marin."

He has just returned to Mill Valley with his mistress, Mrs. Andrew Cassell, who came home with her husband last week after living for a year in Pakistan. They have been living in Lahore while Mr. Cassell, a mining engineer, was working on a water reclamation project.

Mrs. Cassell, or Elvira as she is known to her many friends in Mill Valley, left last spring to join her husband, taking "Kitty" with her in a plastic carrier. Little did she suspect the problems this would entail. There was no trouble getting him in and out of this country, she said, though of course he had to have shots like any traveler.

EVERYTHING was fine until they got to Honolulu, when Mrs. Cassell received an urgent message to report at once to the airport officials. She hadn't planned even to get off the plane there and so was fearing news of an emergency at home or with her husband.

"Do you know what they wanted?" she said. "We understand you have a cat," they said. "Is it a male or female?"

"They are very strict in Honolulu about animals," she explained, "but what was so important about that information I can't imagine.

"AT WAKE ISLAND, where I wanted to get off just to say I'd been there, Kitty was warned not to get off because, he was told, 'there are rats here bigger than you are.'

"At Hong Kong, shots or no shots, Kitty had to go into quarantine for the entire two weeks I was there.

"IN LAHORE Kitty became strictly a house cat because of the heat, and we were warned about the jungle cats. One night he slipped out and did get into a fight with one of the so-called jungle cats, but it proved to be nothing more than a good old American alley cat.

"I had known the very first veterinarian hospital in the world was somewhere in India," she continued. "The one at Lahore was the second oldest in the world. In spite of this the condition of animals is terrible. Like many of the people, they are starving, but while the people don't kill them, they don't take care of their animals.

In order to take Kitty out of the country, Mrs. Cassell had to get a veterinarian's health certificate for him at Karachi.

The Cassells made two trips to India while they were in Pakistan, on one of them meeting by pre-arrangement Mrs. Robert Croll of Los Altos, formerly of Mill Valley. She had added 30 pounds of cat food to her luggage especially for Kitty. She and her sister were on an around-the-world tour.

Mrs. Cassell also made one trip to Hong Kong to meet her husband's mother, Mrs. A. T. Cassell of Pasadena, formerly of Marin.

AND LAST DECEMBER she flew home to be present for the birthday of her mother, Mrs. John Ghiglieri of Stockton.

"I'm glad to be home permanently now," she said, "because it was so dirty and hot over there.

"It didn't seem to bother Kitty, though. He looks much fatter than when we left."

TO WEAR THE GREEN

Members of the Marin Chi Omega Alumnae, from left, Mesdames Charles Loeffler, Sheldon Bowers and Leland Young, discuss plans for the St. Patrick's dinner dance to be given by the alumnae group on Saturday at Maple Lawn in San Rafael. A cocktail hour will precede dinner at 7 o'clock. Mrs. John Schmitz is dance chairman and Mrs. Loeffler, reservations chairman. Proceeds will go to camperships for blind children and the American Field Service.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Crawley Twins Will Celebrate Birthday, Friday, the 13th

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Friday, the thirteenth, is eagerly awaited, not feared, by the Crawley twins, Annette and Clifton. March 13 is their birthday and they will be 13 years old Friday. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Crawley of San Rafael. Invited to celebrate with Annette and Clifton are their pals in the Mountain View Avenue area.

The guests and the twins, pupils in Coleman School, will gather at the Crawley home at 5 p.m. to view movies. After that they will be taken to the Country Boy for dinner. So all of this should take the hex out of Friday, the thirteenth.

A SURPRISE to their friends is the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Lee (Ann) Newman, a widow, to Sam Sigaloff. They have been friends since childhood. He is a retired staff sergeant. The couple exchanged marriage vows in Las Vegas, Nevada Saturday and will reside in San Rafael. The new Mrs. Sigaloff, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casriel, is the sister of Mrs. Marc (Mildred) Rogaway of San Rafael and the late Mrs. Burt (Rose) Capel of San Anselmo. The bride has a son, Reese Newman, who is in the Air Force and stationed in Omaha.

A TRIO of Marin County women will be models in the fashion show, which will highlight the luncheon meeting of the Femineers March 18 to herald the grand opening of the organization's new meeting place in the Huntington Hotel in San Francisco.

Modeling will be Mrs. J. Barry Cooke of Greenbrae, Mrs. C. Russell Graff and Mrs. Samuel Seifert, both of Mill Valley. They will be among the 11 members treading the runway at the luncheon meeting which starts at 11:30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lowry of Hill Haven, Tiburon have returned from a cruise of the South Seas aboard the liner, Mariposa. They toured Tahiti, Bora Bora, New Zealand, Australia, New Caledonia, Fiji and Hawaii.

THE RORY KELHAMS (Sandra Postley) of Marin were among the guests at the large and formal dinner dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ducato at their Hillsborough home Saturday night. The party honored the Ducatos' son, John, and his bride-elect, Candy Hazard. Mr. and Mrs. Ducato, Candy and John, received guests near the front entrance of the home. Mrs. Ducato and Candy had pikake leis flown from Hawaii, a surprise from John.

MR. AND MRS. Sidney Van Wyck Peters, formerly of Kent Woodlands, now residents of San Francisco, have returned from an extended tour. They were several months in Europe, Africa, the Canary Islands and Iran. They visited their son-in-law, Theodore Eliot Jr., erstwhile resident of Belvedere, who is First Secretary to the American Embassy in Iran, and their daughter Patricia (Pat).

SPRING BLOSSOMS

Topping the feminine crowning glory, Mr. John creates this blossoming silhouette for spring. The high-crowned cloche is adorned with delicate white silk daisies scattered over a lace work of handwoven white straw. For dramatic emphasis, the designer interlaces green silk velvet ribbons and deftly bow knots them at the back of the bonnet. (UPI photo)

VALDA HOLLEMAN
Broadway? Well, the Barn

Teacher By Day—Actress By Night

Afternoons, she directs a teen-age cast in a dramatized fairy tale. At night, she becomes the leading lady herself in a sophisticated mystery thriller.

But high school teacher Valda Holleman says she is having a ball in her "Jekyll and Hyde" existence.

As Valda Claire, Miss Holleman opens at 8:30 p.m. Friday in "A Shot in the Dark," scheduled for a four-weekend run by the Ross Valley Players in the Barn in Ross.

She went out of the way to get the part, she says, largely because it was played on Broadway by one of her favorite actresses, Julie Harris.

"I am at the point where I look for roles I like, then try to get them," she explained.

Meanwhile, students at Terra Linda High School know the former Northwestern University drama major as an English, speech and drama teacher, and director of the school's forthcoming musical, "The Princess and the Pea."

A South Dakota native, Miss Holleman has spent much of her life in the Los Angeles area, but has been in Northern California since 1959, gaining a great deal of little theater experience in such groups as the Gate Theatre in Sausalito and San Francisco's Golden Hind, Playhouse, and the Macaroni Show at the Old Spaghetti Factory.

In her college days, the lure of Broadway and the dream of a "big break" were uppermost, and for that matter, she will not say flatly that such dreams are gone yet.

"A Shot in the Dark" opens on Friday the 13th, but the young leading lady contends that any opening night is so full of butterflies, this really cannot make it any worse.

Director of the play—which will run Fridays and Saturdays, except Good Friday, March 27, for four weeks—is Ann Brebner. Mill Valley real estate broker Tom Sinnett will have the male lead.

And what of Miss Holleman's dreams?

"I am taking singing lessons now," she says. "I would sort of like to do a musical."

Frank Fay's Son Gets $43,153

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dion Anthony Fay, 31, adopted son of comedian Frank Fay, wasn't left anything in Fay's will but he's going to get $43,153 from the estate.

Superior Court of Los Angeles so ordered yesterday in approving the final accounting of Fay's executor.

Fay, who died in 1961, had willed his estate to a hospital and a church. The estate was estimated at $216,869, but taxes, debts and legal expenses reduced it to $93,153.

Entries Mailed For Sausalito Art Show

Entry rules have been mailed to artists in the Sausalito area inviting them to participate in the fourth annual art show to be held April 25 and 26 by the Sausalito Woman's Club.

The show, to be held at the clubhouse at 120 Central Avenue, is open to any resident of the Sausalito area including Waldo Point, Marin City and the forts.

Admission will be free and the public may vote for two popular vote awards donated by the Sausalito Foundation, $75 for the most popular painting and $25 for the favorite in any other medium.

The jury will award $325 in additional prizes as follows: City of Sausalito, $100 for best of show; Sausalito Woman's Club, two $50 awards; Sausalito Chamber of Commerce, two $25 awards; Sausalito Rotary Club, $25 for "Best Typifying the Marin Scene"; Sausalito Lions Club, five $5 prizes, and the woman's club, a $25 scholarship in the junior division for school children from kindergarten through high school.

Entries in all fields will be juried and judged by a panel composed of Ralph Du Casse, painter and art professor at Mills College; Mrs. Edith P. Truesdell, painter and teacher of Mill Valley, and Kenneth Slaughter, director of Maxwell Galleries, San Francisco.

Works will be accepted on April 18 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the clubhouse. Further information is obtainable from chairman Alice Scarborough, 55 Crecienta Drive, Sausalito.

More Junior High Teachers Suggested

Members of the San Rafael Board of Education last night agreed they would rather increase the teaching staff at an added cost of $30,000 to $35,000 a year than cut back the program in junior high schools.

Lawrence Geiger, principal of Santa Venetia Junior High School, and Hanlon P. Tharp, principal of Davidson Junior High School, reported the current eight-period program calls for teachers to be in the classroom seven periods a day, giving little time for preparation or homework and test paper correction.

Some teachers see a total of 230 pupils a day, making it nearly impossible to correct assignments and tests, the principals said.

Some of the non-required courses could be dropped or cut back to ease the load, they suggested, and the day dropped to seven periods for pupils and six for teachers. However, they recommended that the problem be met by hiring five additional teachers, in addition to teachers needed next year for increased enrollment.

The board instructed the district staff to prepare budget estimates on the basis of a faculty increase to meet the problem.

Pancake Breakfast

A pancake breakfast to benefit American Field Service fund at Redwood High School will be held by the Larkspur Lions Club Sunday starting at 10 a.m. at the Larkspur American Legion Hall.

Arraignment Set

Arraignment in federal court of George E. Keeney, former mayor of Sausalito, accused of income tax evasion, will be held March 18. Arraignment originally had been scheduled for yesterday in Federal Judge Albert C. Wollenberg's court in San Francisco.

2 Plead Guilty To Tipsy Driving

Two Marin County men entered pleas of guilty in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to drunken driving.

Robert George Keyes, 33, of 22 Grechen Lane, San Anselmo, was fined $276 and placed on probation a year. He was arrested on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard by the sheriff's office Feb. 21.

James Eugene Neighbors, 23, of 30 Nomba Vista, Novato, was informed by Judge Joseph G. Wilson that a $276 fine will be imposed Friday. He was arrested on the charge by Novato police, also on Feb. 21.

Citizenship, Paris Job In Hub Family's Life

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stigeler of 133 Oak Knoll Avenue, San Anselmo, young Swiss-born parents of three California-born children, are themselves United States citizens now, being among the latest Marinites naturalized in U.S. District Court in San Francisco.

For Stigeler, promotion to vice presidency of Fielderest Mills International followed close on his naturalization. He was assigned to open a new office for the company in Paris. The family flew to New York yesterday enroute to the new assignment.

"We just haven't gotten our feet on the ground after all of the excitement," said Mrs. Ruth Stigeler before their departure.

"Everything just happened to us all at once," she said happily.

"We are very, very proud to be Americans, to be American parents of American children," Stigeler said.

Husband and wife studied together for the questions they were asked before becoming citizens and enjoyed learning about the history of the United States, he said.

"We are planning to have the children go to an American school in Paris," Stigeler said, "because we want them to be proficient in English."

Both English and German are spoken at home.

"Our older girl, who was born in San Francisco four years ago, answers questions we ask her in German in English," Stigeler said.

The 2-year-old girl, who was born at Marin General Hospital, also understands both languages but isn't very communicative yet, he added.

Stigeler came to the United States 10 years ago and was drafted into the Army in 1956. He was sent to Korea where he was a librarian at Seventh Division Headquarters located north of Seoul.

He graduated from a business school in Basel with a degree equivalent to a bachelor's degree in business administration.

"This country has been very good to us," said Stigeler, who speaks French in addition to English and Swiss-German. "We have been Americans at heart for a long time. We are looking forward to returning to the United States when my work in Paris is completed."

Youngest Marinite naturalized during February was 2-year-old Renee Denise Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Rice of 1277 Palmar Drive, Novato.

Others becoming new United States citizens were:

Arlindo Teixeira Baptista, P.O. Box 991; Jorgen Henry Andresen, 83-B Clark Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Douglas Bawden, 775 Tamarack Drive, San Rafael; Charles Matthew Lee, 755 Knocknaboul Way, Terra Linda; Mr. and Mrs. Benny Ove Larsen, 350 Los Ranchitos Road, Los Ranchitos.

Philip Hassold Hansen, Bolinas Road, Fairfax; Mrs. Clara Allen, 77 Corte Solano, Larkspur; Quong Chee Tom (formerly Foon Quong Tom), 437 Live Oak Drive, Mill Valley.

Mrs. Akie Swisher, 587 Entrada Drive; Mrs. Livia Wilcox, 715 Olive Street; Mrs. Maria Gezina Katrishen, 1140 Ransome Drive; Mrs. Liselotte Tina Shelton, 6 Hillswood Drive, and Mrs. Marie Madeleine Butler, 70 Cielo Land, all Novato.

Lorraine Phyllis Gilmour, P.O. Box 792, Ross; Mrs. Marie Marguerite Parisien Cucaro, 38 Princess Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Knud Wibroe, 626 Locust Road, Sausalito.

Known to the ancients as the "hub of the universe," Instanbul is the only city that straddles two continents, Europe and Asia.

County Workers Get Additional Holiday

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday approved an ordinance amendment granting county employees an additional holiday when two or more holidays fall on Saturdays in a year.

The new policy will go into effect in May because both Memorial Day and Independence Day fall on Saturdays.

Half the staff of a department will be given a day off the day before Memorial Day, and the other half the day before Independence Day.

The County Employees Assn. requested that employees be given a day off on the Fridays before Saturday holidays, and supervisors compromised with the two-to-one proposal.

Supervisors also authorized $185.04 in holiday pay to four employees of the probation department who worked on Lincoln's Birthday and Washington's Birthday.

They authorized Michael Mitchell, auditor-controller, to pay probation department and Juvenile Hall employees holiday pay under the emergency provisions that cover the sheriff's office and jail division.

Palo Alto Beer License Appeal Wins

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The alcoholic beverage control appeals board has reversed a decision of the ABC department in which the department denied the issuance of an on-sale beer and wine license to a premises across the highway from Stanford University.

The department had denied the application of George and Stella Jalkson for the license on El Camino Real in Palo Alto on the grounds the premises did not come within its rule 61.1. That rule does not permit issuanec of licenses in the vicinity of college or university campuses unless stringent conditions are ment and it is established no students will patronize the premises.

In overturning the department's denial of the application, the appeals board said it felt the rule was in conflict with a state law. The legislature approved a bill in 1959 which repealed a 70-year-old law prohibiting licenses near campuses and certain state institutions.

The department later adopted a rule which some felt was even more strict than the old law had been.

Malcolm E. Harris, ABC director, said the appeals board has issued a number of opinions holding that the rule is improper and the department has taken the case to court. One case currently is pending before the district court of appeals in Los Angeles.

The Palo Alto case, as well as those concerning other applications for licenses near campuses, must await the outcome of the district court case.

Sign-Off For Stubborn Sign

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert Moses, director of the New York World's Fair, asked a grocery chain to remove a huge sign advertising its bakery wares because, he said, it was so close to the fairgrounds it looked like a part of the fair.

The company refused.

So Moses ordered a frame, 70 feet high and 150 feet long, erected alongside a highway at the edge of the fairgrounds. It will be strung with pennants.

And, it'll hike the grocery sign.

121—Used Cars for Sale

337!!!

Yes, we sold 337 new & used cars & trucks in February— ONE SINGLE MONTH!!

WHY?

Because Ames Ford DELIVERS AS ADVERTISED. These cars, like those we advertised AND SOLD in February, are not "leaders," unattractive and in need of repairs. They are front line tradeins, cars anyone would be proud to show off to their friends. Last Saturday we sold 18 used cars alone. They don't remain available for very long, and at these prices, it's no wonder.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Persons Who Have Heart Attacks Are Not Necessarily Overweight

VAN DELLEN

Conflicting reports have appeared on the relationship between body weight and the incidence of heart disease. The life span of the obese person is shortened if he has high blood pressure, diabetes, or hardening of the arteries. But the chances of developing coronary thrombosis are not necessarily increased if he remains healthy and is able to avoid these other conditions.

Some of the controversy results from the failure of our statisticians to distinguish the various body body builds (somatotypes). Overweight may be due to heavy muscles, as opposed to fat.

DR. DAVID M. Spain and colleagues at Beth-El hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., have concluded that the lean, muscular man is more likely to die suddenly than the man with less well developed musculature. Postmortem examinations in this survey showed coronary disease as the cause. This suggests that unexpected heart attacks tend to occur more frequently when excess poundage stems from a large muscle mass.

A man with this body build is classified as a mesomorph—the athletic type who is full of energy and wants things done in a hurry. He differs from the endomorph who is fat, round, enjoys good food, relaxes easily, and sleeps soundly. Heredity probably enters the picture at this point because these characteristics are difficult to acquire.

DR. SPAIN reported his observations on 5,000 men, comparing their weight and somatotype with the prevalence of coronary disease. It was no greater in the corpulent, provided they did not have diabetes or high blood pressure. These conditions increase the risk even if weight is normal.

Heart attacks occurred in greater numbers among slim, muscular individuals than in the ectomorphs (the fragile, non-muscular type). Underweight men had the least trouble along this line.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

MISSING PARTS

Mrs. E. C. writes: My sister gave birth to a boy 3 weeks ago who is missing a left hand and wrist. She did not take any drugs during pregnancy and was not X-rayed. Can you explain?

REPLY

Children came into the world with defects of this nature long before we had atom bombs, X-ray, and drugs such as thalidomide.

MULTIPLE CANCERS

S. C. W. writes: If you have cancer on the skin, is it true that you will not get any other kind of cancer?

REPLY

No. As one who has had a skin cancer, I wish it were. Some persons develop more than one cancer, not only on the skin but elsewhere in the body.

PUS IN PLEURA

A. B. writes: Doest a chest X-ray always disclose empyema?

REPLY

Fluid of any type in the chest cavity can be detected with X-ray. But in empyema, the fluid is pus and a sample must be withdrawn with a needle to make this determination.

NO ROUGHAGE

C. S. writes: In what condition is a bland diet advisable?

REPLY

A bland, or rest, diet is most useful when the colon is irritated or spastic. A similar diet may be recommended in peptic ulcer, diverticulitis, and certain rectal disorders.

Video Aide Says Pay-TV Is Threat But Will Fail

A representative of a major television network predicted yesterday that if "Pay-TV" comes to California, viewers may eventually have to pay to see programs which they are receiving free today.

Russell Coughlan, general sales manager of KGO-TV, a unit of the American Broadcasting Co., said there is no guarantee that so-called subscription television will be "commercial-free."

He told the Marin Motion Picture and Television Council the new service, if successful, would pose a threat to the established television networks. But he predicted its failure.

Viewers will be able to see very little more on a subscription basis than they are offered now, he claimed.

"People who complain about the 'vast wasteland' forget that they watch what they want to.

"No more than one per cent of the television audience watches the local educational station, which does an excellent job," he said.

"It's a shame that the station has to have a yearly auction in order to raise funds. Too few people watch the educational programs that are produced now to make it worthwhile to offer more of them."

He said he doubted that people would pay to see the same kinds of programs which are offered now without cost.

"Speakers in television sets are unable to duplicate the same tonal quality heard in an opera house or at a symphony or Broadway show, whether the viewer is seeing the program for $5, $7.50 or free," he declared.

He told the group that "The Untouchables," which was criticized for its violence, was viewed by 38 per cent of the nation's television viewers.

He called for more parent responsibility in controlling what programs children watch when the question of excessive violence was posed.

"If violence is objected to by the parents, they should be the ones who control what the youngsters watch. That is not the network's responsibility," he declared.

"We are in the entertainment business. No one has said we are supposed to educate the masses. . . . That

Teacher Survey Funds Requested

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A joint legislative committee wants $85,000 to investigate proposed changes in the state's teacher retirement system aimed at granting retirement credit for teaching done outside the state.

Assemblyman Don A. Allen, Sr., (D-Los Angeles), said yesterday that teacher recruitment in California is hampered because out-of-state teachers must be told they won't get retirement credit for that service if they move here.

There are 240,000 persons in the system now, with 60,000 unable to get credit for the instructing they did elsewhere.

Radio Club To Enter Redwoods Arts Festival

Redwood High School's Radio Club will have a booth at the school's Creative Arts Festival May 16 as part of its drive to establish a radio station at the school, said president Steven Bunker.

The club hopes to get funds from the school's finance committee and from car washes and other activities. The club's goal is eventually to communicate with Redwood's "sister school" in Peetz, Germany.

Library Drive

A citizen committee will meet at 8 p.m. today in the Mill Valley city council chambers to discuss the framework of the campaign for the proposed new library and to make committee assignments.

Representatives of all local organizations have been invited to send delegates, said Mrs. John P. Farnham, president of the library board.

Pharmacist Seeks Senate Nomination

NAPA (AP) — Guido Joseph Pavia, 46, a pharmacist, has put up $450 to take out nominating papers and is collecting the 65 to 100 signatures needed to make him a Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate seat of Clair Engle.

Pavia, who works at a pharmacy in Vallejo, said he is a moderate Democrat. He favors cancelling all farm subsidy programs which have failed and diverting the money to education and workers displaced by automation.

He attacked "the high-handed dictatorial manner in which a high ranking member of the party is limiting the choice of candidates to his own handpicked favorite in a disgusting play of power politics."

Pavia named no names. Gov. Edmund G. Brown is backing State Controller Alan Cranston and recently dissuaded Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk from also making the race.

Notary Commissions

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan today announced issuance of notary public commissions to Roberta Blomquist, 100 Broadmoor Avenue, San Anselmo, and Henrietta A. Catallo, 79 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael.

Academy Seniors To Disneyland

Friday, March 13, may well prove to be a lucky day for the 31 members of the senior class of San Rafael Military Academy, as on that day they will board a plane for the annual senior holiday trip to Disneyland.

The group will be under direction of the class adviser, Dean L. W. Robertson.

In addition to Disneyland, they plan to visit Marineland of the Pacific and Knott's Berry Farm. They will return by air Sunday morning to participate in the St. Patrick's Day parade in San Francisco that afternoon.
